Revenue Act Requires Application
Be Filed With Commissioners
Seven Days Before Being Acted Upon and Two Weeks Publication

Among the many new laws and regulations that were passed by the past General Assembly and are being brought to the attention of the public is the new regulations inserted in the 1937 Revenue Act concerning rural pool rooms or bowling alleys, that is pool rooms that are operated outside the city limits of any town.

The new regulation states that notice of application must be published in some paper in the county for once a week for two weeks and the application must be filed with the county board of commissioners seven days before it is acted upon. The state commissioner of Revenue may issue a license to the pool room until the pool room has been approved by the county.

This new regulation is included in Article II, Schedule B, Section 129, subsection (b) of the Revenue Act of 1937 and reads as follows:

Revenue Act of 1937, Article II, Schedule B, Section 129, subsection (b). The Commissioner of Revenue shall not issue a license to any person, firm, or corporation to maintain a billiard or pool table or bowling alley outside of the corporate limits of incorporated cities or towns, except with the approval of the Board of County Commissioners of the county for which the application is made, and all applications for such licenses are hereby required to be filed with such Board of County Commissioners at least seven days before being acted upon, notice thereof published in some newspaper in the county once a week for two weeks . . .

GRAND JURY FAILS TO FIND
TRUE BILL AGAINST MRS.
TAFT W. FOGLEMAN

The Nash Grand Jury sitting at the May term in Nashville failed to return a true bill against Mrs. Taft W. Fogleman charged with being an accessory before the fact in the murder of her husband Henry June Fogleman in February of this year. She was released today.

Melvin Coggins her husband's best friend and reputedly her lover who was brought from state prison in Raleigh to testify at the hearing. Coggins is now under death sentence for the murder of Fogleman.

He was returned to Raleigh Wednesday.

This is the second time Mrs. Fogleman has been released. She was first arrested soon after her husband's death. The recently Coggins made a statement implicating Mrs. Fogleman and she was arrested at her home near Sanford and brought to the jail in Nashville.
