

Miss Kemp Honored

Miss Mary Elizabeth Kemp, bride-elect has been honored by a number of parties given by friends recently.

On Thursday evening of last week Mesdames Willard White and Norman Screws were joint hostesses at bridge at the home of Mrs. White. Summer flowers in variety were used in decoration and four tables were arranged for bridge. Mrs. L. M. Massey won high score prize, that for low going to Miss Helen McMullen. Miss Kemp was given a piece of crystal in her selected pattern. The hostesses served frozen salad, iced tea, and sandwiches.

Miss Dorothy Jones entertained on Thursday with a bridge party, Miss Kemp being the guest of honor. Snapdragons, roses and verberna graced the room where bridge was played. Miss Helen McMullen won high score prize, a nut bowl. The hostess and her mother, Mrs. Pearl Jones, served a salad course with tea.

Miss Kemp was given a handkerchief shower on Monday by members of the Baptist Y. W. A. who met at the home of Miss Ruby Dawson. The regular program was carried out, the shower being planned for the social hour following the meeting.
