

M. G. Mann, general manager of the two largest cooperatives in North Carolina, Monday addressed more than 3,000 cooperative leaders who gathered at Ames, Iowa, from all sections of the Nation for the thirteenth session of the American Institute of Cooperation.

The Institute represents more than 10,000 farmer-owned and farmer - controlled cooperatives with 3,660,000 members and patrons which last year did a business of nearly two billion dollars.

SEEN AND HEARD

WHY?

A small neighbor stood in Mrs. Graham Conn's apartment looking at a picture on the mantel. Being told that it was Mrs. Conn's mother, he said, "That was taken the day you got married, wasn't it? When he found it had been taken before that date he asked, "Then why does she look so sad?"

DOUBLE PLEASURE

At least one of the hikers to Clifton's Pond found his joy in the outing increased by the knowledge that he didn't have to milk the family cow that night.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

The morning after the late liquor election, Dave Privette was in the Record office and made the following very pertinent statement: "The ABC store is nothing but the poor fool's trap. I have morally the same right to bootleg liquor that Wake county has." And Dave does not think this by himself.

THE DIFFERENCE

Passing by L. R. Temple's home the other morning I saw Mrs. Temple with a rake busy in the yard. To make talk I said, "You are one working woman." She replied, "I have to be." Of course she was joking, yet I wonder how many of us work because we really enjoy it or because we have to.
