

Miss Hoyle Wins First Prize

It pays me to encourage them in their new undertaking which is a credit to our town.

"Every house needs Westinghouse."

Mrs. A. J. Hunt.

DAWSON-MEWBORN BEAUTY SHOP

It is much easier to become beautiful in beautiful, comfortable surroundings like the Grade A Dawson-Mewborn Beauty Shop at Spring Hope.

Perfect location affords seclusion, yet it is in the heart of town. Equipment and supplies are unexcelled and the owners are charming advertisements of their wares.

Operators with skilled fingers and a genuine desire to enhance each type of beauty to the utmost fill appointments promptly at nominal cost.

One success secret is undoubtedly the thoughtful personal attentions invariably given each customer, such as: dryer height and temperature right, current magazines, preference in style, cosmetic shades, etc.

Mrs. Ed Acree.

CAPITAL COCA-COLA BOTTLING COMPANY

It pays me to buy from the Capital Coca Cola Bottling Company because I find that their Coca Cola is not only 'Delicious and Refreshing' but indispensable when I am engaged in a specially strenuous program.

A bottle of Coca Cola is just right to quench my thirst and furnishes the necessary amount of stimulation and energy at one time.

It pays me to be as fresh at my last appointment as the first of the day.

Mrs. Ida Hall.

J. M. CHEVROLET COMPANY

I trade with J. M. Chevrolet Co. because I am assured of receiving quality merchandise at reasonable prices. It is always a great satisfaction to me to know that I will receive my money's worth in automotive merchandise, and at J. M. Chevrolet Co. I have always experienced this feeling of satisfaction.

I trade with J. M. Chevrolet Co. because in my new car buying I have always received just as much, if not more, for my used car. Mr. Robertson, the manager, has a reputation for being fair and square in a trade.

Finally, to all my friends and customers I can safely say that the J. M. Chevrolet Co. is a very desirable establishment with which to do business.

G. K. Corbett.

PAUL V. BRANTLEY

It pays me to trade with PAUL V. BRANTLEY because I am sure to get courteous service and I can depend on the quality of the products purchased.

Paul was a fine neighbor as a boy, and he is a fine citizen since he is a man, and I am glad to have him here in business where I may enjoy the advantages of trading with him.

Mrs. A. J. Hunt.

DEBNAM HARDWARE STORE

I wish to tell you why the people of this section always get best values from Debnam's Hardware Store. Mr. Debnam has "Everything in Hardware." He sells the best grade of goods at the lowest price possible. The large and well-displayed stock makes it possible for you to buy just the articles he always courteous and prompt to satisfy their customers' needs.

Mrs. P. F. Massey.

SHORR'S DEPARTMENT STORE

"Big Stocks", "Saving Prices", "Family Store", "Satisfied Customers" are shopworn phrases until backed by the personality of Stanley Shorr, his store personnel and the goods they sell. Then they become valid reasons for shopping at SHORR'S DEPARTMENT STORE.

The amount of stylish clothing, shoes, piece goods, etc., carried equals city establishments. Farmers and their families, from baby up, are supplied at cotton and tobacco prices. Town families save, too.

Briefly—experience, live interest in both customer and business, and a Jew's knack of getting bargains and passing them on at small profit by quick turnover, makes Shorr's Zebulon's trading center.

(Miss) Constance Matthews.

WAKELON TURNS IN WIN OVER GREENVILLE CLUB

Wakelon, July 5—Wakelon's Tobacco State League entry defeated Greenville All-Stars here today, 12-5.

After a slow start, the locals got to work with a 15-hit attack to overcome a three-run deficit and take their big margin. Greenville put together four walks, an error, and a double by Hamilton to score four runs on Manager Alton Strickland in the first inning, but in the next four frames, Strickland gave butt woe hits. Lindsay finished the game and gave three hits and one run.

Strickland paced the locals at bat, with three hits. Two hits apiece were credited to Page, William Hoyle, Mitchell, and Bissett. Hamilton led the visitors, with two blows,
