THE FOUR COUNTY NEWSPAPER—WAKE, JOHNSTON, NASH AND FRANKLIN

VOLUME XIV.

ZEBULON, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, JULY SIXTEENTH, 1937.

NUMBER 3

KILLER OF THREE IS ORDERED HELD UNDER BIG BOND

Leon Smith of near Hia who was driving the car that and killed three pedestrians Clayton Saturday night, was ordered held under a $1,000 bond after a hearing before a coroner jury Monday afternoon.

The accident occurred almost opposite the Bertex Mill on the eighth road west of Clayton. The Johnny Hamm, 18, Clayton, James Blizzard, Jr., 13, Da Va., died instantly when struck by the car, which was attempting to pass a truck driven by Robert Cawthorne of Raleigh. Miss Lauri Williams, 19, of Clayton, Bliz aunt, was taken to Rex Ho where she succumbed Monday night.

Smith asserts that he did not see the three young people almost on them. He swerved suddenly to the left, leaving the car crashed into a power pole through a 2,300-volt electric line across the highway which halted traffic momentarily.

Evidence at the inquest was conflicting as some said the pedestrians were on the shoulder of the road while Cawthorne declared he saw them walking well on the cleared portion of the highway.

MOSQUITO-PROOFING HERE

With a new solution recently perfected and called "Pyrethrum" the directors of the Virginia Dare celebration on Roanoke Island away with the troublesome mosquitoes during the evening portion of the celebration. It is estimated 5000 persons were kept mosquito free each night for an approximate cost of $3.50.

In dilution the Pyrethrum, is sprayed in a fine mist directed to grass, grounds, trees, shrubs anything else, is harmless to water fowl and plant life. It is so harmless to humans unless taken internally. It has a pleasant odor and can be used during the course of an evening at meetings in the first spraying gives out.

WILL NO TRACE OF MISS EARHART

Tuesday and Wednesday sixty planes from the U. S. S. Lexington scoured the South Pacific in a last chance search for the sign of Amelia Earhart and J. Noonan, lost 12 days off small Howland Island.

The navy has spent more time and money in search of these two than it ever has on any other mission.

During the two days the planes covered 57,000 square miles of water in the two days they were out. The second days being more and clear that they could be from a height of 500 feet.

WELLS HEADS DISTRICTS BAR

A meeting in Lillington in Fourth District Bar Association meeting on Monday, elected J. Wells of Smithfield as their president and re-elected D. H. Gold of Goldsboro as district councilman on the State Bar Council.

The annual meeting of the district bar, with Harnett County law firm as hosts, was well attended and an invitation from Chatham for the 1938 convention was accepted, the exact date to be set later.

They heard them speak of vacations, and keep wondering what they can mean, I am all out of patience — although it may sound quite green,

It must be confessed a vacation something I never have seen.

WET LEADER HELD ON DRUNK CHARGE

Richard B. Telfair, leader among Raleigh and county advocates for legalized liquor stores in the recent successful Wake County campaign, was arrested on North Blount St. in Raleigh and charged with being lodged against him for drunken driving.

State Highway Patrolman W. C. Carter arrested Telfair and also his companion, C. E. (Bunny) Newsom. Telfair, the officer said, was operating the car. Newsom was charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

CPL SETS UP NEW DEPARTMENT

Creation of a new Agricultural and Industrial Development Department within the Carolina Power and Light Company was announced this week by S. P. Vecker who is the company's general sales manager.

The department was set up to further development of natural resources in the various territories served by the company's lines.

Mr. A. L. Monroe has been designated as head of the department.

The Company has for years cooperated with agricultural, commercial and industrial bodies and civic organizations, but no department had been set aside for that purpose alone.

The lowest daily rate in history is now in effect for travel on the Seaboard Railway — a cent and a half per mile.

Flea beetle attacks in Forsyth County have slackened and tobacco has improved considerably, according to R. W. Pou, county farm agent.

First Tobacco Exposition Will Be Held In Wilson

By George L. Wainwright

The first annual North Carolina Tobacco Exposition and Festival will be staged at Wilson on August 19th and 20th.

As outlined in the plans for the two day affair, the first day's program will include many activities for the most part of which those participating will be awarded attractive prizes. A window judging contest, band concert, tobacco exhibit and street dance will feature the opening.

The second day will include the selection of a King and Queen, street parade, awarding of prizes, coronation ceremonies, and coronation ball.

Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace has been invited to come to Wilson on these days and speak to the thousands expected to attend.

The Honorable Clyde R. Hoey, Governor of North Carolina will be extended an invitation to be present, as will several other prominent persons, including Congressman John H. Kerr and other Congressmen and Senators from this area.

The Exposition and Festival will be under the supervision of the Executive Committee that will have complete charge of the vast amount of detail arrangements that are planned to make the event one of the most outstanding affairs in the state during the year 1937.
