MRS. RUSSEL TEMPLE HONORED

Mrs. Julian Horton and Miss Marion Whitlock entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Horton, honoring Mrs. Russel Temple, a recent bride who was formerly Miss Helen McMullen.

Gladioli, verbena and white zinnias made an effective background for the five tables of bridge.

Mrs. Wallace Chamblee won high score prize, a crystal candy jar; consolation prize went to Mrs. Avon Privette, a linen handkerchief and to the honoree a red and white tea pot was presented.

The hostess served ice cream in green and white heart-shaped cups that were tied with wedding bells and lilies of the valley, with individual cakes.

After refreshments, the honoree was the recipient of a linen shower from the following guests: Mrs. Wallace Chamblee, Mrs. Avon Privette, Mrs. L. M. Massey, Mrs. L. E. Long, Mrs. H. C. Wade, Mrs. John Kemp, Mrs. Norman Screws, Mrs. Raleigh Alford, Mrs. Donald Stallings, Mrs. Eugene Privette, Mrs. Williard White, Mrs. Claude Pippin, Mrs. McRae Faison, Miss Margaret Barrow, Miss Ruby Dawson, Miss Dorothy Barrow, Miss Ruby Stell, Miss Dorothy Jones, Miss Sadie Leigh Blount of Spring Hope.

Mrs. Fred Page entertained at four tables of bridge on Tuesday evening complimenting Mrs. James Gray, recent bride, Misses Martha Williams, Jo Dunlap and Myrtle Pirce. High score was made by Mrs. Wallace Chamblee. To Mrs. Gray a rug was presented, the other honor guests receiving linen handkerchiefs. Miss Ruby Stell received the floating prize. An ice course was served.

HOME BURNED

The Dave Williams home near the John Winston place a mile above Hephzibah church was completely destroyed by fire Monday. It was owned by Williams' son Robert. The house and contents were almost a complete loss, a few chairs only being saved. We understand there was some insurance on the house but none on its contents. No one was at home when the fire was discovered.

KEMP REUNION

On Sunday, July 11, the family of W. B. Kemp met in a family reunion at the home of his son, J. B., who lives a few miles south of Zebulon on the Alva Bunn farm. The following children were present: J. B. and N. C. of Zebulon, H. W. of Farmville, E. H. of Durham and Mrs. Nancy Tucker of Henderson. Two other sons could not be present. Besides these, there were a number of special friends present along with the children and grandchildren. More than fifty people gathered around the bounteous dinner spread in the open by the roadside. Mr. W. B. Kemp is in his 82 year and his friends hope he may round out a full century.

JOYNER-BUNN

On last Saturday Miss Erdine Bunn of Knightdale was married to Mr. Glenn Joyner of Wakefield, the ceremony being performed in Dunham. The young couple are now keeping house in Wakefield, occupying the place known as the Willie Green home.

MRS. BARBEE ENTERTAINS

The lovely piazza of the Barbee home on Thursday afternoon of last week was the scene of a beautiful party when Mrs. G. S. Barbee entertained honoring Miss Martha Ann Williams of Clover, Va., house guest of Mrs. C. G. Weathersby.

The guests assembled at 4:00 o'clock. Immediately upon arrival they were served a delicious salad course with ice tea, after which bridge was enjoyed throughout the afternoon. At the conclusion of the game, Miss Williams, the honoree, was presented a dainty linen handkerchief, and Mrs. Irby Gill, who held high score, was presented toilet powder.

Those enjoying Mrs. Barbee's hospitality were: Miss Martha Williams, honoree, Mesdames W. C. Campen, C. G. Weathersby, F. L. Page, L. M. Massey, I. D. Gill, C. E. Flowers and Foster Finch.

POTEAT RESIGNS

Dr. E. M. Poteat, for eight years pastor of Pullen Memorial Baptist church, Raleigh, on last Sunday announced his resignation to take effect in September. Dr. Poteat will go to Euclid Avenue church, Cleveland, Ohio. Since coming to Raleigh he has become almost an international figure among Baptists and his call to a much larger field was to have been expected.

CELEBRATION IS SUCCESS

The celebration, or historical exhibition, being staged this summer at Manteo is said by those who have attended to be worthy of national attention. On Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights a pageant written by Paul Green depicting the life of the Lost Colony is presented by competent actors. The exposition opened on July 4 and will close on September 6.

An extension telephone in addition to the main station will add to the convenience of your service. Ask about it at the telephone business office.

The Service that adds Comfort to Your Home

During those hot summer days, the time you save with a telephone to aid in settling daily problems may be the difference between a day that worries your nerves into a frazzle, and a day that includes the time you need for relaxation.

There are so many details in running a household. An extra loaf of bread from the grocer—a six o'clock order of ice cream from the drugstore—and so on. And with a telephone to run your errands, many concerns of the day are easily disposed of.

Of course, most everyone is familiar with the value of telephone service, but if you are trying to get along without a telephone you may be surprised, and pleased, to know how little it costs to have a telephone in your home.

All you need to do is to ask any telephone employe, or get in touch with the telephone Business Office. Order your telephone today, and add comfort and protection to your home.
