THREE DAYS

Within my heart three memories
Burn with a constant flame
That shall endure till life is done;
One is the day you came;

And one is of day when fair
Shone all the skies above;
When music swept the summer air
The day we told our love;

And one, which deepest sears my heart,
Is of an autumn day,
Death in the fields 'neath lowering clouds—
'Twas then you went away.

nesday.

I am forced to conclude Politicians are queer;
They can run on a ticket—
Or that's what I hear;

They stand upon platforms —
That much might make sense —
And most of their sitting
Is done on a fence;

They may advance bravely,
But sometimes retreat;
And on these occasions
Their own words they eat.

New Hanover dairymen, faced with a shortage of grazing, ensiled their oats and vetch with molasses and have had an excellent succulent feed with which to maintain a normal flow of milk this summer.

Liquor rather than money is the cause of much evil.
