he first two weeks of school. The bus routes will be practical y the same as they were last year. the state law is stricter on the election of bus drivers than it was truckt and every substitute will have to talke an examination under patrolman, and get a permit from he highway patrol office, in order drive a truck, either as a reguar driver, or as a substitute. It is his regulation. This law of course ind careful driving.
A number of parents have asked e about the promotion of children the next grade. I mean those hildren whô were not promoted at ated making up the work during in the lower grades from one to seven will review with the children the work they went over last year At the end of this two weeks a standard test will be given, and those pupils who have made sufficient advancement during the summer and during this review will summer and during this review will be promoted. It is not the best thing for a child to be in a grade where the work is too hard for him. It is better to repeat a grade and be well prepared, rather than nd be well prepared, rather than advance too rapidly and be lost n what the child is undertaking to government cotton loan may be disappointing Fear that a large portion of the Carmers in North Carolina will not be able to get the full nine-cent loan under the government plan was expressed here this week by M. G. Mann, general manager of the North Carolina Cotton Growers Cooperative Association. Cooperative Association.

The regulations provide for a cotton or better and also make it necessary for growers to comply with whatever acreage control program may be announced for 1938. Mr. Mann said that the Cotton Association is prepared to lend 7 Association is prepared to lend 7 1-2 cents per pound upon cotton with no restrictions and at an interest rate of four per cent. He said that already growers had expressed themselves as planning to take the Association loan, store their cotton, and then at a later date decide whether or not they wanted to secure the government loan or subsidy payment. The Association will also be prepared to make the government loan.

is proud of her thousands of staunch tobacco friends and equally as proud that more money is being paid here.

Opening prices were good and individual averages of $$ 31.00$ per hundred were recorded for tobacco sold on the two opening days Where there's a will there's something sure to follow, and the world's largest bright leaf tobacco market has a great big will, and a higher dollar is the result.

Prices in Wilson are regular and factories cannot be glutted from the daily sales.
