SEPTEMBER

The goldenrod is yellow;
The corn is turning brown;
The trees in apple orchards
With fruit are bending down.

The gentian's bluest fringes
Are curling in the sun;
In dusty pods the milkweed
Its hidden silk has spun.

The sedges flaunt their harvest
In every meadow nook;
And asters by the brookside
Make asters in the brook.

From dewy lanes at morning
The grapes' sweet odors rise;
At noon the roads all flutter
With yellow butterflies.

By all these lovely tokens
September days are here,
With summer's best of weather,
And autumn's best of cheer.
—Helen Hunt Jackson.

Mrs. Ted Davis was brought to the home of Mrs. Twitt Ramsey on Saturday of last week from Duke Hospital where physicians agreed proper treatment could be administered as well at home as at the hospital. Miss Frances Ramsey is her nurse.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt and daughters of Charlotte spent Sunday here with Mrs. A. J. Hunt.

C. N. Nelson and Louis Riggsbee of Durham were in Zebulon on Monday of this week on business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lee and children of Smithfield spent the weekend with the W. H. Chamblees.

Philip F. Massey has returned from the Veteran's Hospital at Newport News, Va., improved in health after an operation and treatment.

Miss Vera Belle Lloyd has returned to Brooklyn, N. Y. after a two weeks visit with friends in Virginia Beach, Baltimore and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Lloyd of Youngsville.

Misses Ruth Greene, Kay Kemp, Mary Gray Pippin, and Margaret Fowler left Tuesday for Meredith College.

His members and other friends will be interested in the following post card message from Rev. J. W. Bradley:

Old Fort, N. C., Sept. 7, 1937
Dear Bro. Davis:
Wife and I are visiting my 95 year-old father in the mountains for a few days. Home Friday. Preaching and sacrament next Sunday 11:00 and 8:00.
Greetings to all.

DEATH

Mrs. Mary Jones of Youngsville was buried Sunday at Louisburg. She was 79 years old, and a sister to W. H. Chamblee of Zebulon.

Mrs. D. D. Chamblee is spending a few days in Raleigh with her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Terry, who has been ill.

R. L. Isaacs of Raleigh was a business visitor in Zebulon Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benton and children are spending some time at Myrtle Beach, their home before coming to Zebulon.

A. C. Dawson, Jr., went on Tuesday to Southern Pines where he will be a member of the high school faculty during the school year.

Leaving this week for Meredith College were Misses Joselyn House, Eunice Outlaw and Iris Massey, former students there.

Mis Meryl Massey, 1937 graduate of Wakelon, left on Wednesday to enter Louisburg College.

Mrs. A. L. Williams of Clover, Va., is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. G. Weathersby.

Rev. J. E. Hoyle of Whitakers who is this week helping Pastor Herman Finch in a meeting at Holly Grove, was in the home of his sister, Mrs. L. R. Temple, on Thursday for dinner, and also dropped in the Record office to greet friends there.

Chas. Flowers, Jr., left last Sunday for The Citadel, Charleston, S. C., where he will be a cadet this school year. As proof of his interest in the home town and home folks Charles wants the Record sent to him while he is away.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hocutt announce the birth of a daughter, Armenia Jane, on Saturday, Sept. 4.

Miss Geraldine Massey is giving full time to the work of assisting with preparations for the Fair here the latter part of this month, doing office work.
