Three Warnings Forfeit License

Director Fulk of the safety division in the motor vehicle bureau, has announced that hereafter more attention will be given to so-called minor violations of traffic rules. Every time a motorist is called down by a patrolman for such little infractions of the rules as parking wrong, turning without giving proper signal, passing on a hill, curve or bridge, etc., his name and plate number will be recorded. When three such reports have been entered against a driver his driver's license will be revoked. Heretofore license has been forfeited only for some major violation of the law, and the officers hope that the new rule will make driving saf-

Masons Have Special Meeting

On Tuesday evening, Sept. 14 there was a special joint meeting of the Wakefield and Zebulon Masonic lodges in the Zebulon hall. The occasion was a visit from Grand Master Shearon and Grand Secretary Anderson.

A barbecue supper was served in the lodge room before the meeting. The chief speakers were the Grand Master and Grand Secretary. Grand Master Shearon spoke on what Masonry is accomplishing through its institution for aged women and orphan children. Grand Secretary Anderson told the Masons present what becomes of the money paid into the treasury of the Grand Lodge.

He showed how every cent was spent.

A number of those present expressed great appreciation of the supper and especially the addresses of the evening.

There were besides members of the two lodges present, a number of visitors from other lodges—Raleigh, Wendell, Wake Forest, Rochester, N. Y., and Enfield.

Rudolph Roberts Safe In China

Rudolph Roberts, a young man from Wendell and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Roberts, has been in China for about three years. He had not been heard from in four months and his parents and friends were very anxious about his safety. But news comes that he is safe. He is about three days journey, as the Chinese reckon distance, up the river above Shanghai. He says there is no danger whatever where he is, since the fighting is some distance

Julian R. Horton

Funeral rites for Julian R. Horton were held at Zebulon Baptist Church on his 39th birthday Sunday. Burial was in the Knightdale Cemetery, Knightdale. Rev. R. H. Herring was in charge of the service, and was assisted by Rev. L. R. Evans, pastor at Knightdale.

Surviving Mr. Horton are his widow, Mrs. Mary Herndon Horton; one daughter, Dorothy Herndon Horton; his mother, Mrs. J. J. Horton, Knightdale; three sisters, Mrs. A. R. Blow, Vanceboro; Mrs. E. J. Morgan, Louisburg; Mrs. M. L. Barnes, Williamston; one brother, Emmett B. Horton, Knightdale.

For more than thirteen years he had been with the Zebulon Drug Co. and had made hosts of friends in the town and community. He died Friday night in Rex Hospital where he had been carried three weeks earlier.

Salaries Of School Teachers Raised

Salaries of teachers in the public schools of the state have been placed at a level not much below what they were ten years ago. This was done by the state board of education's approval of a new wage schedule.

Teachers holding A certificates may begin at a salary of $96.00 per month and advance with experience to $123.75. Lower grade certificates naturally draw lower pay but the ten per cent increase is there.

County Superintendents share in the raise. Franklin County's Supt. will receive $2,637; Johnston's $3,500; Nash's $3,275; Wake's $3,500.

Glasses Given By Rotarians

At the last meeting of the local Rotarians a report was made concerning the investigation following a request that this organization provide glasses for a small Wakelon pupil whose father had not the money to buy them. It was decided that the case was a worthy one, the glasses were bought and the child will be enabled to work
