den Club.

Mrs. W. C. Campen, chairman of committee on the Yearbook, distributed them for the current year, stating that the hand-painted covers had been done by Mrs. M. B. Walker, a new member of the club.

The hostesses served a salad course with coffee to the members, and to Mesdames J. T. Allen, of Wendell, Fannie Jones and W. M. Page, of Zebulon, guests.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Fred Page.

ROTARIANS HOSTS TO TEACHERS

The Zebulon Rotary Club entertained the Wakelon teachers last Friday evening. This is a yearly affair. Vance Brown had the program and he made it interesting and entertaining.

Mrs. L. M. Massey sang several selections. Every teacher was then asked to tell what she enjoyed best at the yearly Rotary supper. They gave some interesting and humorous answers. They said that they wanted the Zebulon Rotarians to organize a marriage bureau, or hinted at such. After this Miss Alston read a paper describing each Rotarian. That was something hard to understand. She knew every one's strong point and weak ones, too, especially the weak ones. How it is that a woman knows so much about man is more than I can fathom, and we men learn nothing from them, even after we have spent all of our lives with them. Shucks! They do not need any marriage bureau established. They know too much about man now.

The club certainly enjoyed them, as we always do. Wakelon has a fine set of teachers.

Monday, Oct. 11th, Wendell Rotary club entertained the Clayton, Raleigh and Zebulon clubs. It was a splendid meeting. Wendell folks make you enjoy yourself when you go there.
