THE LOOK

Strephon kissed me in the spring,
Robin in the fall;
But Colin only looked at me
And never kissed at all.

Strephon's kiss was lost in jest,
Robin's lost in play;
But the kiss in Colin's eyes
Haunts me night and day.
SARA TEASDALE.

Mrs. Clarence Pearce had as visitors on Wednesday of this week her sisters, Mrs. John H. Norwood, of Bayleaf, and Miss Stella Lee Jones, who is in Raleigh for the winter. A brother, Woodrow Jones, is also visiting Mrs. Pearce, from Washington, D. C.

The Home Rebekah Lodge, of Goldsboro, will stage their first annual Thanksgiving Ball and Floor Show, the proceeds to be turned over to the Odd Fellows Orphan Home, of Goldsboro. Miss Katie Pierce, Miss Gladys Harris, Miss Hilda Perkins, and Mrs. John Hinton were appointed as dance committee.

The ball, which is to be held at Hotel Goldsboro, Thanksgiving Eve, features Billy Crow and his orchestra.

Dr. J. F. Coltrane, who has been incapacitated for work for several days, is rapidly improving and expects to be in his office next Monday.

Mrs. Lorenzo Temple with her two youngest sons, Tommie and Alton, visited her mother, Mrs. Martha Hoyle, in Henderson Monday. Mrs. Hoyle is spending the winter in Henderson with her son, Dr. Irby Hoyle.

Mrs. E. W. Hood has been sick for two weeks, but is slowly improving.

Miss Pansy Matthews, of Bessemer City, was the week end guest of Miss Inez Pitts. Miss Matthews is a member of the faculty of the Elizabeth City schools.

Preliminaries For The J. O. U. A. M. Contest Nov. 11

On November 11th the preliminaries for the Junior Order statewide original oration and essay contest on the subject of American will be held in our local High schools. Each Senior High School boy is eligible in the oration and each Senior High School girl in the essay contest. These are to be judged upon composition, memory and delivery by three disinterested judges.

The local winners will represent his and her school in the District contest to be held on November 22 at some local point in the District, said place to be announced later. The successful contestants will be given a medal.

The winners of both the essay and oration contest in the fourteen Eastern Junior Order Districts of the state and the winners in the fourteen Western Districts will compete in their respective sections, in some central point in said areas, on the night of Feb. 22 and the champion girl and boy for the Eastern section and the girl and boy for the Western section will then be selected.

The contest to select the statewide winners will be held in Charlotte at the State Council Meeting of the Junior Order U. A. M. on August 23, 1938. The boy will be given a tuition scholarship to the State University of North Carolina and the girl winning will be given a tuition scholarship to Meredith College. These respective institutions have donated these scholarships.

Mr. Victor R. Johnson, of Pittsboro, State Councilor of the Junior Order, U. A. M., wants each school to send to him names of winners with name and address of schools immediately after the preliminaries on November 11th.
