CLUB NOTES

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. F. E. Bunn in the chair and Mrs. R. E. Pippin secretary pro tem.

Mrs. Irby Gill, chairman of the department of literature, presented Mrs. A. N. Jones, who directed a carefully prepared program emphasizing Book Week. A part of it was a repetition of a chapel program at school and was much enjoyed by the club members.

Geo Glover and Dorothy Mizelle had piano solos.

Miss Cox, of Wakefield's faculty, spoke on reading, emphasizing its value for entertainment; information both general and specific; as a medium for the expression of opinions; and as providing charm and inspiration. She discussed the differences between reading for pleasure and recreation and study.

F. D. Finch gave a report of the district meeting at Chapel Hill. R. E. Pippin presented the report of the committee on the circulating library. After some discussion this item of business was closed until the next meeting.

Bunn presented to the club the report given by Mrs. M. B. Walmsdames Campen and Medved refreshments during the hour.

GARDEN CLUB

C. E. Flowers urges that all available material which they will send to the Garden Center send to Mrs. A. N. Jones, who will file it in connection with her work at the school library. Helpful books, pamphlets, and articles will be gladly received and for the benefit of the club.

Prizes are being perfected for the giving of prizes for Christmas. The Woman's Club is in this project.

Error last week's paper stated a would be served in the Colonnade after the tour of inspection just before Christmas. It will be at the C. V. Whitley

Special Session Begins Work

Congress of the United States meeting in special session on Nov. 14, is supposed to follow a program outlined by President Roosevelt and having for its main items crop control, regional planning, government reorganization and wage-hour legislation. If these are of deep concern to all sections of the country and preceding of Congress will be held with unusual interest.

Artist Convention At Wilmington

Artists of the state are this week holding their annual convention in Wilmington, in the First Baptist church. The pastors' conference met on Monday afternoon, and convention proper assembling on Tuesday. Many matters of vital importance to the denomination are considered, and reports of all sections of the work have been presented.

Knightdale Group Pleases Rotarians

Edison Mann had the program on Friday night of last week. He had arranged for an enjoyable hour for Rotarians. The entertainment was given by a group from Knightdale School, as follows: Miss Ruby Garner, pianist; Alfred H. Guy, teacher of Agriculture, who sang "The Gypsy Trail." Miss Rachel House gave a solo, "I'm Nothing But An Old Rag Doll," and a reading, "My Big Sis."

This was classed among the best programs that Rotarians have had.

Revoke License Of 16 Drunken Drivers

The State Highway Safety Bureau announced Wednesday the revocation of seventeen licenses of automobile drivers. Of the seventeen, sixteen were for drunken driving.

Four cases were tried in Raleigh City court last Friday. Three of them were for drunkenness.

Liquor sales in the 26 wet counties of North Carolina during the month of October increased over the preceding month $218,992. Cutlar Moore, head of this very profitable (to the state) business said that the greatest increase was in those counties claiming prosperous tobacco markets and outstanding football attractions during the month.

Unemployment Census

President Roosevelt appealed via radio on Sunday night for cooperation in the unemployment census which began on Tuesday of this week. Declaring that unemployment has delayed balancing the budget and that relief is only a temporary remedy, the president said that a permanent cure could be found in finding jobs for all willing workers. More than 85,000,000 cards were mailed Tuesday, one being meant for every adult in the country. Answers are to be returned before midnight of Nov. 20. The facts thus ascertained will be used as a basis for the program to be inaugurated.

Admire comes from a Latin word meaning to wonder at. Admiration is wonder mixed with esteem.

COMMUNITY SING

A Community Sing will be held at Hopkins Chapel next Sunday afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock. Choirs and quartettes from other churches are invited to come and take part in the service.

Regular preaching services at the Baptist Church next Sunday. The public is invited.

Wreck Off Hatteras

The waters off Cape Hatteras on the eastern coast of this state claimed another ship as their own last Saturday when the Greek freighter, Tzeny Chandris, sank after striving for 30 hours to keep afloat. Of the crew 21 were rescued by the coast guard. It is not definitely known how many were aboard. Seven are known to be dead from exposure or drowning. The fact that the sailors spoke only Greek made it more difficult for details to be known. Their ship went down in what is known as one of the most perilous sections of the Atlantic coast south of Newfoundland.

Annual Conference Of Methodist

Methodists of the Eastern Conference of North Carolina meet this week in Raleigh in annual session. Not only will reports of all church activities be studied and recommendations made for the coming year; but assignments of pastors to charges will be made. Opening on Wednesday the Conference will last over Sunday, appointments probably being read on Sunday night when those interested may hear them over the radio.

DEATHS

RALPH W. MITCHELL

Ralph W. Mitchell, 44, died suddenly Sunday morning at his home near Wakefield. Mr. Mitchell was a well-known farmer of the Wakefield community and a native of Granville County.

Funeral rites were conducted at the Mitchell home Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the Rev. Carl Ousley, pastor of the Wakefield Baptist church. Burial was in the Wakefield cemetery, with the burial rites in charge of the local council of the J. O. U. A. M., of which Mr. Mitchell was a member.

Surviving Mr. Mitchell are his widow, Mrs. Elura Tippet Mitchell and seven children: Charles B., Carl, Mildred, Raph, Jr., Prentess, Bess McRee and Linda Lee Mitchell. His mother, Mrs. Sarah Mitchell, and five sisters and four brothers also survive.

M. P. SOUTHALL

Clayton—Funeral services for M. P. Southall, 63, were held Wednesday afternoon at Home Memorial Church at 2 o'clock. Burial was in the cemetery at Zebulon.

Surviving Mr. Southall are three daughters, Mrs. T. L. White of Zebulon, Mrs. John Coats of Raleigh and Mrs. Harvey Adams of Clayton; a son, J. H. Southall of High Point; and two brothers, L. R. Southall of Louisburg and J. H. Southall of near Raleigh.

New Nursery Near Zebulon

W. E. Overman has leased the Johnnie Hilliard place known as the Hilliard's Mill property and has established a nursery for fruit trees, with apples as the main project. Mr. Overman already has two thousand young trees and is rapidly enlarging his business. He is experienced in budding, grafting, and other branches of his work. Trees are sold under special license from the state and are guaranteed as to variety and freedom from disease.

This new industry promises much for the development of this section.

District Meeting Jr. O. U. A. M.
