A THANKSGIVING PRAYER

For what we have though small it be,
We thank thee, Lord.
For the simple joys of serenity,
We thank thee, Lord.
For the gentle touch of the friendly hand
Of those who love and understand,
We thank thee, Lord.

Of all thy gifts the greatest three
Are friendship, love and fidelity.
Let others pray for the harvest's yields,
For the golden grains of the fruitful fields,
Humbly our prayer to thee we send
That when we've reached our journey's end,
Someone may say, "Farewell, good friend."

The Graham Conns and Mrs. T. M. Conn went to Wilson Sunday to visit the Russell Stephensons, who have just moved into a new home. Mrs. Stephenson was formerly Miss Beulah Conn.

A. D. Antone went to Richmond on Monday, returning Wednesday. He made the trip with his daughter and son-in-law, the John Josephs of Franklinton.

Frank Kannon is beginning a removal sale and offers special values in practically all of his present stock.

Rev. J. W. Bradley is this week attending the sessions of the Annual Conference of Methodists of the Eastern Conference in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Pitts visited relatives in Granville county near Oxford last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Chamblee and Mrs. Berniece Finch left on Tuesday to attend the Baptist State Convention at Wilmington.

Quotation from press release from THE CITADEL, Charleston, S. C.

Charles E. Flowers, Jr., although a freshman at The Citadel is making good progress. He is a member of the coast artillery unit of reserve officers' training corps, being assigned to Company "G".

Ralph House came from Campbell College for the weekend at home, bringing with him a friend, Joe Tally of Fayetteville. They attended the Student Legislative Assembly in the State Capitol on Friday and Saturday, Ralph introducing a bill in the House and Tally one in the Senate, each on Intangible Taxes. Both felt like real legislators when the bill passed.

Miss Betsy Barnes of Clayton spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Ted Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Perry of Raleigh visited Mrs. C. E. Flowers, aunt of the former, on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Willard Gill was taken sick about the middle of last week with an attack of sore throat which threatened diphtheria. Her mother, Mrs. O'Neal of the Corinth section, came to be with her during her illness, and a sister came later. Mrs. Gill is now at the home of her parents regaining her strength.

Miss Meryl Massey has been elected secretary of the dramatic club at Louisburg College, where she is a student.

Mrs. Yates Newton spent the past week in Robeson County visiting relatives.

Mrs. Ruric Gill is confined to bed because of septic sore throat.

A. L. Tippett has for four years worked during the tobacco marketing season with the Banner Warehouse, Wilson. This year the Banner has had the best season in its history, making many new friends by its efficient and courteous treatment of farmers. Naturally, Mr. Tippett is proud of this, and in turn, the warehouse should be proud of the loyal service given by this employee.

J. T. Robertson is a man who believes in raising food as well as market crops. This year by his advice a tenant planted three-fifths of an acre of land in Porto Rico potatoes. The crop from the plot amounted to 132 bushels, so both Mr. Robertson and his tenant are assured of plenty of "sweet taters" through the winter.

BAINES-BRANTLEY

On Saturday evening, November 13, Miss Phoebe Brantley was married to Mr. George W. Baines, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Theo. B. Davis. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brantley of Nash county; the bridegroom the son of Ernest Baines and the late Mrs. Baines, also of Nash County.

Miss Jocelyn House was home from Meredith College for the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. House.

Mesdames C. E. Flowers, F. D. Finch, W. C. Campen, A. V. Medlin and H. C. Wade went on Wednesday to Duke University to attend the lectures given that day at the Health Center.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Jones went to Clayton Wednesday to attend the funeral service for F. P. Southall, who was formerly a resident of Zebulon.

Rev. R. H. Herring was guest speaker at the meeting of the Wendell P. T. A. on Monday night, speaking on A Growing Community.

Sexton Johnson, well known in this community as a singer, will have an audition over WPTF in Raleigh on Tuesday night of next week. The time will be about ten o'clock, and it is safe to say that many of his friends will be listening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shorr announce the birth of a son on Monday, Nov. 15, in Baltimore. Mr. Shorr will visit his family this week end.

In the inter-class tennis matches at Meredith College this week Miss Iris Massey is a substitute on the senior class team. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Massey.

On Friday evening of last week Miss Cornelia Herring was surprised by the arrival of a number of her friends to celebrate her sixteenth birthday. Monopoly was played after which ice cream and cake were served to Misses Margaret Watson, Gerry Bell, Elizabeth Pearce, Jewel Braswell, and Alan Marshburn, D. C. Pearce,

Charles Hinton, Vassar Eddins and Buddy Gay.

Miss Mary Barrow, student at Duke University, was home on Sunday to see her parents.

Mrs. Lawrence Tracy and little daughter Julia, of Kinston spent the first part of this week here visiting Mrs. Tracy's mother, Mrs. J. H. Bunn, and other relatives, and returning home Thursday.

N. B. FINCH HONORED ON 80TH BIRTHDAY

The home of Rev. and Mrs. N. H. Finch was the scene Sunday of a delightful surprise birthday party honoring the 80th anniversary of Mr. N. B. Finch. Mr. Finch went for a drive with B. F. Wood and upon his return found friends and relatives gathered for the surprise event.

A regular old time turkey dinner was served the guests. The dining table was centered with a tempting birthday cake bearing 80 candles in pink icing, made by Mrs. F. D. Finch, of Zebulon. Following dinner, enlivened with reminiscences of by-gone days, the party was led by Mrs. N. Herman Finch to the library where she presented packages to the honoree. He received many useful gifts.

Numbered among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Finch, of Zebulon, Mrs. Mollie Richardson, of Spring Hope, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Finch, of Wilson, Mrs. Bessie Finch, of Stanhope, Mr. Harry Finch, of Wilson, and the three grandchildren, Dave Finch, Baxter Finch and Judson Finch. Numerous other friends called during the afternoon to greet Mr. Finch and to bring gifts.

One of the finest tributes paid to the guest of honor is quoted here: "Mr. Finch is one of the oldest citizens of Nash County. Judging from his active life, one would not take him to be an old man. After all it is the wrinkles of the soul that makes one old, and not the number of years. His eyes are ever turned toward the sunrise."

Wakelon News

Mrs. A. N. Jones, librarian at Wakelon, gave a program in chapel Monday, observing Book Week. A book character parade was held, 1st and 2nd prizes being given for the most original costumes. In the parade were Little Black Sambo, Little Bo-Peep, Mistress Mary, Wee Willie Winkie, Little Red Riding Hood, Mary and her little lamb, Dutch Twins, Little Indians, Heidi, Robinson Crusoe, Pinocchio, Little Lord Fountleroy, Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn, Little Women, Little Minister, and David Copperfield.

1st prize went to 7th grade, representing Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn.

2nd prize went to 3rd grade, representing the Dutch twins.

Three book reviews were given—Donald Pippin reviewed "Three Musketeers"; Cornelia Herring, "How to Win Friends and Influence People," and Mr. Hartley, "Northwest Passage."

The 7th grade gave a short skit from the play "Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn."

A contest was held in the elementary grades at Wakelon last week and a prize offered to the child bringing the largest number of books for the library. 74 books were added to the library and Edith Lee Medlin won the prize, bringing 12 books.

QUESTION: Is there more enjoyment in Camels because of those finer, more expensive tobaccos?

ANSWER: Camels are the LARGEST-SELLING cigarette in America

People do recognize that the finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS in Camel cigarettes make a big difference in the way they enjoy smoking. More Camels are smoked than any other cigarette in America.
