FIT COMPANY FOR ONESELF

I have to live with myself, and so I want to be fit for myself to know, I want to be able as days go by Always to look myself straight in the eye;

I don't want to stand with the setting sun And hate myself for the things I've done.

I don't want to keep on a closet shelf

A lot of secrets about myself, And fool myself as I come and go, Into thinking that nobody else will know

The kind of man I really am: I don't want to dress myself up in sham.

I want to go out with my head erect,

I want to deserve all men's respect; But here in the struggle for fame and pelf

I want to be able to like myself; I don't want to look at myself and know

That I'm bluster and bluff and empty show.

I never can hide myself from me, I can see what others may never see,

I know what others may never know;

I never can fool myself, and so Whatever happens I want to be Self-respecting and conscience free. —Renfrow Press.

Our Father-Son Supper

On Thanksgiving night, November 25, the eighth grade boys gave a Father-Son supper. We served chicken, potatoes, turnips, cake and ice cream. The boys did most of the work with the help of Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, Mr. Holland, Mr. Williamson, and the cook. We cleaned chickens, peeled potatoes, washed dishes and froze the ice cream. When we got ready to eat, we had to get our fathers and bring them in. After we ate chicken, potatoes, peas and other things, they served us with ice cream and cake. When we finished our fathers told Mr. Cunningham what to do to us. We boys left then and went to the gymnasium and played basketball for an hour. When we came back, Mr. Cunningham and our fathers were having a meeting in the dining room. When they finished, we left and went home. My father said he had a good time.
