

Recorder's Court

male escaped 60 days on the highways by paying a $5.00 fine and the costs of the case along with the promise that he would be good for a whole year.

Coley Bridges' wife was charged with "simple assault" which was not so very serious, it seems since, with a plea of guilty, the court let her off with the cost.

Walter King was accused of forcible trespass but the court decided it was "frivolous and malicious prosecution and not for the public good or words to that effect. So the "queen" witness, Helen Price, was remained to jail till the costs were paid or otherwise disposed of according to law.

Herbert Merritt and Cannon Richardson along with their employer, Merritt Massey, were accused of "malicious entrance to real property." In this case it simply meant that Mr. Massey had some dirt removed which the town owned. It cost the two colored men $5.00 each and Mr. Massey $25.00 for "doing the town dirt."

Neil Leach was up before the Court for non-support of his wife and children, but before the judge could do anything about it Neil and his wife agreed to "resume their relations as husband and wife" so the court discharged him on payment of the costs.

D. W. Morgan from the city of High Point came into town or became in the town a drunken drinker. It cost him $5.00 besides the cost of the liquor.

Also Oscar Mitchell of High Point "got it coming" to him for his love of likker. He was fined $25.00 for reckless driving and $50.00 for drunken driving—a double barreled procedure either way one looks at it.

Spencer Young got drunk and could not behave himself. He got the promise of 50 days on the roads. He was also charged with assault and got 60 days more on the roads. All was suspended on payment of costs.

Joe Holder was before Judge Rhodes for breaking into and taking $22.00 from the Philette Service Station. The evidence was sufficient to bind him over to Wake county Superior Court under a $250 bond for the two offenses—breaking and taking.

Raymond Perry seems to have left his loved ones low and poor, so the judge said "You may work for the state for your neglect. Then he thought better of it, so told Raymond to get a job and pay his wife $10.00 a month for the support of their child, Bettie Gray Perry.

Robert High was charged by Eva High of seduction. When the evidence was heard, the court decided that Robert was accused of possessing attractive qualities not evident in the evidence so dismissed the case by letting Eva pay the costs.

Record: J. A. Haines, assault. Guilty. $5.00 and costs.

Roger Hicks like charge. Judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Willie Davis got him a new pair of shoes from S. G. Flowers store without benefit of clerk or other service. He will work six months for the state on its highways to settle its account. Mr. Flowers—ask him what he got in return for his shoes.

COTTON

Wall Street Journal.

Cotton is the overcoat of a seed that is planted and grown in the Southern States to keep the producer broke and the buyer crazy.

The fiber varies in color and weight, and the man who can guess the nearest the length of a fiber is called a cotton man by the public, a fool by the farmer, and a poor business man by his creditors.

IN THESE COLUMNS

The price of cotton is fixed in New York, and goes down when you have bought, and up when you have sold. A buyer working for a group of mills was sent to New York to watch the cotton market. After a few days' deliberation, he wired his firm to this effect: "Some think it will go down, and some think it will go up. I do, too. Whatever you do will be wrong. Act at once."

Cotton is planted in the spring, mortgaged in the summer, and left in the fields in the winter.
