

To Our Subscribers:

Especially to you who have not paid your subscription since before Jan. 1937.

Trusting you to pay, we have been sending the Record to you on credit for a year or longer.

Unless you pay past due subscriptions within 30 days, or write us to extend your subscription to a definite future date, we will be forced to drop your name from our mailing list very soon.

(If you have paid your subscription within the past 90 days the following does not apply to you, unless you wish to get a portrait or a set of chinaware.)

Our special offers: Look at your name on this paper. Whatever time you owe for, divide the amount by 2 and send us the difference. If you pay for 1938 we will send you a free coupon that will with 29c be good for an enlarged portrait in oil colors worth $2 made from any negative or penny picture. Or we will send you a Royal China Certificate, which with 76 cents will entitle you to a 10-piece set of Chinaware. Odd pieces may be had at the wholesale price.
