

DEATHS

MRS. SARAH MITCHELL

Mrs. Sarah Mitchell died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. F. Eddins on Monday, Jan. 17, at 6:30 p. m., after a week's illness with pneumonia. She would have been 81 years old next May.

Burial services were held on Wednesday afternoon at Wakefield Baptist church, with Pastor C. L. Ousley in charge; assisted by Rev. E. H. Davis of Louisburg; Rev. J. W. Bradley of the Zebulon Methodist church; and Rev. A. A. Pippin of Wakefield, a friend of many years. Burial was in the Wakefield cemetery.

Pallbearers were grandsons: Herman Eddins, Paul Mitchell, J. C. Mitchell, James Mitchell, Carl Mitchell, Charles Mitchell, J. B. Gilliam and Ben Raybon. Granddaughters were flower-bearers.

Surviving are five daughters: Mesdames Hubert Eddins, Robert Eddins, E. A. Rhodes, of Wakefield; Mrs. R. V. Raybon of Zebulon, R.3; Mrs. D. B. Gilliam, Franklinton; four sons: H. C. Mitchell, J. S. Mitchell, V. M. Mitchell and J. C. Mitchell, all of Wakefield; 54 grandchildren, and 9 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Mitchell added to beauty of face and form a charm of manner that came from a sweet spirit and a Christian character. Her life was a blessing to the entire community and her death a loss.

CHARLES W. PERRY

The funeral of Charles W. Perry 76, who died at Mary Elizabeth Hospital, Raleigh, Friday, was held from the residence Saturday afternoon by the Rev. H. O. Baker. Burial was in the family cemetery.

Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. Cary Watson, of Durham; Mr. Joe Jones of Angier, Mrs. Aaron Gardner and Mrs. Martin Webb, of Pinetops; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Winstead and Mrs. Sue King, of Raleigh.

Mrs. Jones was the former Miss Euphemia Plude Allen, of Wendell.

Though we travel the world over to find the beautiful, we must carry it with us or we find it not.—Emerson.

W. P. Crenshaw Dead

W. P. Crenshaw, head of The Home Fertilizer Company here, died of angina pectoris at his home in Raleigh on Wednesday of this week and was buried on Thursday at Baltimore, from which place he came to Zebulon some years ago. He was 61 years old. Surviving besides his wife are a son and daughter, both by a former marriage.

As one of the town's leading business men, Mr. Crenshaw had meant much to Zebulon's progress and he will be greatly missed. For some time he had lived in Raleigh, driving out to Zebulon for his work.

Bailey Boy Drops Dead In Game

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 from the Bailey Methodist Church for Donald Lee Barnes, 18, of that city, who fell dead Tuesday night during a basketball game in the Bailey High School gymnasium. Rev. W. G. Farrar, former pastor at Bailey, now of Seaboard, conducted the services with Hunt's Funeral Home in charge of all other arrangements. Interment followed in the Bailey cemetery.

Young Barnes was a popular member of the Bailey community and took an active interest in sports. His death occurring at 8:00 while he was playing basketball. Death was almost instantaneous and was attributed to heart failure. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barnes, his father being a prominent merchant of Bailey; two brothers, Harold and Bobby; four sisters, Ruby, Willisteen, Margaret and Jane; his grandparents on his father's side, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Barnes of Rocky Mount; and his grandmother on his mother's side, Mrs. Alice Hendricks.

A NATIONAL SACRIFICE

Cairo, Egypt—In a public letter to a local newspaper one of Cairo's most notorious pick-pockets, hero of many incarcerations in jail, pledged in behalf of himself and his numerous colleagues that they would call a halt on their activities January 20th during the marriage of King Farouk and Farida Zulficar.

MAINTAINS LONG FAST

Memphis, Tenn.—Determined to show his fellow clergymen that "God can maintain life without food or drink", the Very Rev. Israel H. Noe, dean of St. Mary's Episcopal Cathedral entered his third week of fasting, without food or water, by attending a three-day religious convention at Knoxville after preaching his customary two sermons. Once weighing 200 pounds he now weighs less than half of that.

MURDERER CONFESSES

Clarence Fairbanks has confessed that on Sunday night in Henderson he killed his employer, Steve Good of Austin, Texas, and also attacked Good's wife who tried to save her husband. Mrs. Good is in a hospital and her recovery is uncertain. The couple owned and operated a Tom Thumb circus, with dogs, monkeys, and birds. The show was to have been presented at the Henderson High School Monday. Fairbanks claimed that his act was in self-defense after Good had attacked him for remonstrating when a bird was mistreated; but police believe that robbery may have been the motive since money Good is known to have received is missing.

Fairbanks, nineteen years old, stated that he had been with the Goods for six months as chauffeur and assistant. He said he has had no home for years and refused to give the name of any person with whom he is connected.

REPORT ENDANGERS MARINE PROGRAM

Washington, D. C.—Reports of public hearings before the Senate Commerce and Labor committees reflect so disastrously upon the C. I. O. control of Maritime unions that the program of Commissioner Kennedy for the expansion of the U. S. Merchant Marine may be seriously jeopardized when it reaches the floors of Congress. Much of the testimony submitted to the committees was unprintable. A captain of many years' experience on the high seas stated that "no woman, young or old, is immune to insult on an American ship under present C. I. O. domination". Other commanders testified to drunken and disorderly insubordination among their crews that they were powerless to curb under union rules; that even their passengers were beyond the protection of the Ship's officers.
