A PRAYER

Dear Lord, when comes the time that I shall leave

For realms afar this earthly house of clay,

Let me go quietly, that those I love

May scarcely know that I have slipped away.

Let me go quickly, Lord; spare those I love

The painful watching for delaying death;

And let them hold no saddening memories

Of struggles for the last departing breath.

Let me go bravely; may regret and fear

Be absent, and may faith still be my guide;

That those I love may comfort take, and say,

"We dread death less because of how she died."

Dear Father, hear my prayer in heaven above,
And grant it for the sakes of
those I love.

R. H. Bridgers attended the Association of Ice Manufacturers which convened in Charlotte last week.

Friends here are interested in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Savon Starnes, formerly of the Pleasant Hill section, now placed the department of hats and dresses for women's wear upstairs at the rear of the store, thus affording more space downstairs and a greater degree of privacy for customers. Mrs. Flowers is in this division of the store, and her knowledge and taste will be of benefit to shoppers.

a week end visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Chamblee.

Local dealers are co-operating by offering special values in used cars. While no one disputes the claim that a new car is frequently the best buy that can be made, there are plenty of instances in which a used car effects a saving that will count much more elsewhere than if paid for first ownership of an automobile. In such cases the bargains now on sale have a double appeal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McIntire hills of the Blue Ridge mountains in southern Virginia. Making the trip with them were their son, Harmon McIntire, Herbert and Forrest Mitchell, and Robert Lee Kimball.

Supt. E. H. Moser and Mrs.
Moser spent the week end in Washington, leaving here on Fri-the capitol city and also the Rigo-ferred to New Mexico, with a probability of being again transferred for engineering duty in the flood district in California.

Rev. J. W. Bradley was called to his home in the western part of the state last week by the death of his father. Mr. Bradley returned in time to fill his appointment in the local Methodist church Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Bradley has as her guest in the Methodist parsonage her mother, Mrs. Lynch.

E. A. Chamblee has returned from a visit to his brother, D. P.
Chamblee in Richmond. He made the trip to the Virginia city with his brother who was going home after visiting his parents, the W.
H. Chamblees.

Mount and Miss Eunice Outlaw of Meredith College spent Sunday here with their mother, Mrs. J. B.
Outlaw.

phan's Friend and Masonic Journal carries an interesting article on the life of Dr. S. B. Turrentine, lon.

R. L. Isaacs, formerly of Zebu-lon, but now of Raleigh, was a business visitor in town Tuesday.

W. L. Poteat at Wake Forest Monday afternoon.

erick, spent last week end in Sanford, visiting in the home of Mrs.
John Liles. Mrs. Liles was hostess at a party honoring Mrs.
Page. Mr. Page went to Sanford on Sunday.

Rev. Herman Finch, who is ill in Duke hospital. Finding him improving, they went on to the

Miss Jane Hoyle at their home at Wakefield. Between the hours of four and six scores of callers greeted the bride, welcoming her

Miss Ruby Temple greeted
