SONG OF GRATITUDE

I am enraptured of all blossoming things—
Of fields, new-green, and all leaf-laden trees;
And gazing at them something in me sings
In gratitude for even the least of these.

And I forget the barren, sunless days
That seemed much like a long and dreary night—
But words grow futile when I try to praise,
This world so full of wonder and delight.

MARGARET E. BRUNER,
In Christian Science Monitor.

Misses Inez Pitts, Magdalen Brummitt and Miss Watson spent the week end here, coming from the Educational Association meetings in Raleigh to Miss Pitts' home. They returned on Sunday afternoon to their schools.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Pittman were here for the week end with Mrs. Pittman's sister, Mrs. F. E. Bunn.

Bobby Horton has returned to U. N. C. at Chapel Hill after spending spring holidays here with his mother, Mrs. J. D. Horton.

Mrs. Rena Young, who came home from Duke hospital some weeks ago, has been taken back there for continued treatment.

Members of Wakelon's dramatic club who presented "Riders to the Sea" in the recent district tournament and won the privilege of contesting at Chapel Hill went this week to the University where they were to compete with winners from other schools. On Tuesday night they presented the play here in final dress rehearsal, which was free to all who attended.

Mrs. Johnny Joseph and little daughter, Barbara Anne, of Franklinton, visited Mrs. Joseph's parents, the A. D. Antone's, here Tuesday.

R. E. Pippin arrived last week from Washington to be at home until the last of this month.

Mrs. W. B. Farmer left last Friday for Gladys, Va., after spending some weeks here in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Theo B. Davis.

Mrs. Ebbie Stallings, who has not been in good health for some months, was taken to Mary-Elizabeth hospital on Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Fannie Jones returned to Zebulon Monday after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Rives, in Orlando, Florida.

Mary Iva Gay and Ralph House, Wakelon graduates and members of the sophomore class at Campbell College have parts in the class play to be presented April 1.

Miss Gladys Yancy of near Zebulon made the honor roll for the first month of the present semester at Campbell College, where she is a member of the commercial class.

Rev. W. J. Jones and Mrs. Jones of Pineland College were in Zebulon for a while on Saturday and were pleasant visitors in the Record Office.

Mrs. Julian Horton arrived in Zebulon from Florida on Sunday evening and was here for a few days with Mrs. Lit Jones and other friends. She made the trip with her sister, Mrs. Cox, and will visit for some time before returning to Florida.

Misses Ruth Massey and Juanita Rhodes arrived last Wednesday from E. C. T. C. to spend spring holidays at their homes, leaving to resume school work on Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Jones and baby of Raleigh were here Sunday to visit Mrs. Jones' parents, the M. T. Debnams.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Crowder of Raleigh spent Sunday here with Mrs. Crowder's mother, Mrs. C. E. Parker.

Mrs. C. E. Parker received news of the death of her sister, Mrs. Florence Bass of Spring Hope, R. F. D. on last Friday. Mrs. Bass, who was a widow, is survived by ten children.

Mrs. Algie Jeans and little son, Cameron, of Louisburg are visiting Mrs. Jeans' parents, the Kader Brannans, this week.

Robert Phillips is among the latest sufferers from measles. His two little daughters are also ill with the same disease. As is usual in such cases, the father is sicker than the children, measles being harder on adults than on those younger.

Sam Croom, who recently returned from a stay at the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, is not so well this week as he has been, and is again in bed.

James Belvin, who was taken to a Raleigh hospital last week, has improved sufficiently to be expected home by the middle of this week.

A housekeeper of Zebulon who has had a mattress remade by Jagers Mattress Co. of Raleigh says she is entirely satisfied with the work and that the mattress is holding up well.

C. E. Seawell is another of Zebulon's business men now sick from measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Manning of Zebulon, announce the birth of a son, Rudie Davis Manning on March 18. Mrs. Manning formerly was Miss Ruby Davis of Middlesex.

Austrian Rotary Clubs Quit
Chicago, Ill. — Because their meetings are contrary to Nazi formula, International Rotary announces the disbanding of its eleven groups in Austria. Since October, 42 Rotary Clubs have been dissolved in Germany because of Nazi opposition.

Pacific War Game Starts
Honolulu, H. I. — "Problem 19" of the War Department meets its test in Hawaiian waters this week, when 150 fighting ships and 500 aircraft, manned by 3,600 officers and 55,000 men assemble to defend a theoretical defense line running from Alaska to Samoa. On this axis depends the entire Pacific Coast defense of the Western seaboard.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet at Wakelon was held this year on March 17 in the gymnasium and cafeteria of the school.

The circus motif was emphasized in the arrangement and decorations of the gymnasium and in the service at the tables. Balloons and vari-colored crepe paper were used, and the waitresses were dressed as clowns.

Annie Pearl Liles as ringmaster spoke words of welcome. The junior class song was sung by a chorus. Toasts were given as follows:

To those on Reserved Seats—Margaret Phillips; response by Evelyn Carroll.

To Circus Sponsors—Evelyn Pace; response by Dr. L. M. Massey.

To Circus Patrons — Charles Whitley; response by Mrs. Willa Marshburn.

To Animal Trainers — Robert Lee Kimball; response by Mr. Moser.

To Circus Cooks—Louise Rowland.

Features of the program were a quartette by "The Bao Sisters"; special act by Alma Doris Jones; a dance by clowns; fortune telling by Lillian Wells; duet by "Staff-wood Aces"; an act by "Marx Troupe"; with a final number, "The Merry-go-round Broke Down" by the chorus.

The menu consisted of grapefruit cocktail, chicken salad, potatoes, peas, glazed apples, ice cream, cake, lemonade, salted nuts.

Members of the faculty, members of the school board, and the grade representatives in the P. T. A. were special guests.

The senior class has 27 girls and 21 boys; the juniors number 36 girls and 30 boys.

Miss Cox and Miss Palmer of the high school faculty had charge of the evening's entertainment and menu.
