ECHOES

How sweet the answer Echo makes
To music at night
When, roused by lute or horn, she wakes,
And far away o'er lawns and lakes
Goes answering light!

Yet Love hath echoes truer far
And far more sweet
Than e'er beneath the moonlight's star,
Of horn, or lute, or soft guitar
The songs repeat.

'Tis when the sigh—in youth sincere,
And only then,
The sigh that's breathed for one
to hear—
Is by that one, that only Dear,
Breathed back again.

—T. Moore.

Brantley Chamblee of Zebulon, R2, son of Preston P. Chamblee, went to Fort Bragg last week and stood the examination for entrance into the aviation department of the army.

Mrs. W. H. Chamblee quietly celebrated the 75th anniversary of her birth on Friday of last week. She has recovered from her recent ill health and now feels better than at any time during the past two years.

Accompanied by R. L. Isaacs Misses Juanita Brown, Hortense Wicker, and Mrs. Ruth Perry visited the RECORD shop last Saturday. Loyal to Zebulon, Mr. Isaacs frequently brings his friends and introduces them to friends here. They are always welcome.

The RECORD'S editor and Mrs. Davis acknowledge with pleasure an invitation from Miss Margaret Gray Williams to attend the graduating exercises of the senior class of the Dorothea Dix School of Nursing in the hospital auditorium on Wednesday evening, May 25. Miss Williams is a graduate of Wakelon, where she did especially good work, and is to be congratulated upon having completed her course in nursing.

Mrs. C. V. Whitley was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Club and a few additional guests at the regular meeting last week.

Mrs. Ebbie Stallings, who has been sick for some time, was taken back to Raleigh hospital last week for further treatment.

Shelton Lewis of Wendell spent the week end with his cousins in the home of his uncle, Ralph Lewis.

Theo. B. Davis went to Salemburg Sunday to attend a part of the commencement exercises at Pineland College, hearing the baccalaureate sermon.

Miss Vida Bell is home for the summer from Murfreesboro, where she is a member of the school faculty.

Miss Dorothy Barrow is at home after commencement in the Farmville schools where she taught for the past term.

Ralph Bryant of Middlesex has recovered sufficiently from a recent major operation at Duke hospital to be brought home on Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. Pattie Harris visited her sister, Mrs. Hankins, in Winston-Salem last week. Returning to Zebulon she spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. F. D. Finch, before going to the home of her brother, W. H. Chamblee on Route three.

Misses Margaret Bunn and Kay Kemp were home from Meredith College for the week end with their respective families. With them was Miss Jane Thomas, who spent a part of the time in each home.

Miss Linda Newton spent the week end here with her sister, Mrs. F. E. Bunn.

Miss Creola Eddins, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eddins of Wakefield, is among the members of the graduating class at Mary Elizabeth Hospital.

Dr. C. E. Flowers had his tonsils removed on Thursday of last week and has been absent from his office since that time. He is able to be up now, but talking is both difficult and painful.

Her friends are very glad to know that Mrs. Willard Gill is making good progress toward recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Robertson of Wendell have announced the engagement of their daughter, Pauline, to Durward Glenn Hart of Greenville and Ayden, the wedding to take place in June. Miss Robertson is well known in Zebulon, being a graduate of Wakelon school, and having many friends here.

Mrs. W. C. Harrison and her sister, Miss Annie Ross were in Zebulon on Friday of last week renewing acquaintance with former neighbors. Mrs. Harrison, now of Baltimore, was formerly Miss Roberta Ross and lived in Zebulon more than twenty years ago. She was down last week to see her daughter take part in commencement exercises at St. Mary's School in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Gay, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Hood, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hood visited relatives last week in Washington, D. C., Baltimore, and New Jersey.

Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Barbee attended the State Medical Convention in Pinehurst last week. This week they are attending the Shriners Convention in Fayetteville.

Mrs. G. S. Barbee was hostess to her bridge club on Friday evening of last week.

The Zebulon Supply Furniture Department will conduct a Cooking School, Friday, May 27, 2 until 5.

Mesdames Joe Speight and O. M. Marshburn of Rocky Mount visited Mrs. G. S. Barbee on Wednesday of this week.

Mr. J. E. Jenkins grows choice tobacco - gets top prices

"WHERE DOES MY FINEST TOBACCO GO?"

I SOLD THE CHOICEST LOTS OF MY LAST CROP TO CAMELS AT TOP PRICES. SO DID MOST PLANTERS 'ROUND HERE. YOU WON'T NEED THREE GUESSES TO KNOW WHAT CIGARETTE I SMOKE - IT'S CAMEL. I KNOW CAMELS ARE MADE FROM COSTLIER TOBACCOS. NATURALLY, MOST TOBACCO PLANTERS HERE SMOKE CAMELS

EXPERIENCED tobacco growers like Mr. Jenkins know that cigarette quality has to be grown in the tobacco. They prefer Camels to other cigarettes, because they know Camel's MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS give them the real top in quality. Try Camels. You, too, will say that Camels give more of the real pleasure and enjoyment there is in smoking.

"WE SMOKE CAMELS BECAUSE WE KNOW TOBACCO"
