Concerto in E flat major by Mozart. Frederick Page gave a sketch of the life of Edgar Guest and read three of his poems. Mrs. Theo. Davis discussed Poetry in the Bible.

Mrs. A. N. Jones explained that the Library will be open to adults as well as children during the summer and asked for donations of books to form the nucleus of a club library; also for magazines.

At present for the sake of greater convenience the library is in the larger room of the club apartment. Should the apartment be rented the books will be moved to the auditorium of the clubhouse.

Mrs. Paul Yelverton Chairman of the Health Department of the Raleigh Woman's Club, announces the dedication of the Wake County Preventorium, Sunday, May 22, 1938, at 4:30 p. m.

An interesting program is being arranged and the public is invited to visit the Preventorium on that date. The construction of the Preventorium has been made possible by the people of Wake county who have purchased Christmas seals each year from the Health Department of the Woman's Club and sold by the Parent-Teacher Association and other organizations interested in tuberculosis control work.

Your presence at the dedication of this building will be appreciated.

ATLANTA HOTEL BURNED

Fire starting early Monday in the basement of the Terminal Hotel in Atlanta destroyed the building and took the lives of 25 persons. A number yet unknown were seriously hurt. The hotel was an old building, and burned with amazing rapidity. Guests asleep in the rooms were either awakened by the smoke and fire or were suffocated.

More than 3 out of every 5 motor car buyers today are choosing sixes. And, of course, the most popular six of all is this new Chevrolet—the Six Supreme! Discriminating people prefer it because of its high quality . . . because of its great value . . . because it's the only low-priced car with all these fine car features!
