POEMS ENTERED IN CONTEST

(Wakelon's young poets seem especially fond of dogs, as is attested by the entries below and others already published).

MY PAL

I have a little dog at home,
And tho he's very small,
He follows me for miles and miles
And doesn't mind at all.

We roam the woods for hours,
He's playful as can be.
Through sunshine and through showers,
He's always there with me.

Sometimes we run, sometimes we walk
And he wags his tail with joy.
But I just bet if he could talk
He'd wish he were a boy.

And there's no other dog you see,
Who has a heart like his.
And tho he's ugly as can be
I'm glad he's like he is.

—CLAUDIUS WATSON.

THE FATE OF A DOG

We have a young puppy named
Lad,
And the fate of this dog, oh so sad.
It happened on a day
Of which we were very gay,
But the ending was so very, very sad.

By a car he was run over,
And he died upon the clover;
And when we had heard that he had died,
We sat down and cried and
cried;
For we would never see our puppy
any more.

We dug a little hole,
And laid him down to mold;
And as it was growing very late,
We left him to his fate;
And we never saw our puppy any more.

WHEN FATHER PLAYED BASEBALL

By EDGAR GUEST

The smell of arnica is strong
And mother's time is spent
In rubbing father's arms and back
With burning liniment.
The house is like a druggist's shop,
Strong odors fill the hall—
And day and night we hear him
groan,
Since father played baseball.

He's forty past, but he declared
That he was young as ever
And in his youth, he said he was
A baseball player clever.
So when the business men arranged
A game they came to call
On dad and asked him if he thought
That he could play baseball.

"I haven't played in fifteen years,"
Said father, "but I know
That I can stop the grounders hot
And I can make the throw.
I used to play a corking game
The curves, I know them all,
And you can count on me, you bet,
To join your game of ball."

On Friday the game was played
And all of us were there.
Dad borrowed an old uniform
That Casey used to wear.
He paid three dollars for a glove,
Wore spikes to save a fall;
He had the make-up on all right
When father played baseball.

At second base they stationed him.
A liner came his way.
Dad tried to stop it with his knee
And missed a double play.
He threw into the bleachers twice.
He let a pop fly fall.
Oh, we were all ashamed of him
When father played baseball.

He tried to run, but tripped and fell;
He tried to take a throw.
It put three fingers out of joint
And father let it go.
He stopped a grounder with his face,
Was spiked, nor was that all;
It looked to us like suicide
When father played baseball.

At last he limped away, and now
He suffers in disgrace.
His arms are bathed in liniment,
Court plaster hides his face;
He says his back is breaking, and
His legs won't move at all.
It made a wreck of father when
He tried to play baseball.

The smell of arnica abounds,
He hobbles with a cane,
A row of blisters mar his hands,
He is in constant pain.
But lame and weak as father is
He swears he'll lick us all
If we dare even speak about
The day he played baseball.

"I KNOW TOBACCO... I GROW IT!"

Mr. James Graves sells the pick of his crop to Camel

HOW DO I KNOW MY CIGARETTE CONTAINS THE FINEST TOBACCO? BECAUSE I SMOKE CAMELS.
CAMEL BOUGHT THE PICK OF MY LAST CROP AND PAID
A SIGHT MORE THAN FOR ORDINARY GRADES. MOST GROWERS 'ROUND HERE SOLD THEIR BEST LOTS TO CAMELS TOO. NO WONDER CAMEL IS THE MOST POPULAR CIGARETTE IN THESE PARTS!

MEN who grow fine tobaccos—who sell them—who get the checks—they know the quality of tobacco that goes into various cigarettes. And they say, "Camels buy our finest grades." So, if you want to enjoy a cigarette made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCO—Turkish and Domestic
—it's just plain logic to choose Camels.

TOBACCO
PLANTERS SAY

"WE SMOKE CAMELS
BECAUSE WE KNOW TOBACCO"
