

TOWN OF ZEBULON
TAX NOTICE, 1937

At 12 o'clock, noon, at the courthouse door in the Town of Zebulon, on Monday, September 12th, 1938, I will by virtue of authority contained in Senate Bill No. 263, session 1935, General Assembly of North Carolina, sell at public outcry, to the highest bidder, for cash, pursuant to the laws of North Carolina, all the lands in the Town of Zebulon on which the 1937 taxes remain unpaid. A list of the lands to be sold appears below, and the amount of taxes due thereon, with interest and cost of advertisement to be added.

CHARLES M. SHANNON,
Tax Collector.

COLORED

York World's Fair and will stage a display approximating $100,000 in cost. Coleman Roberts of Charlotte is exhibit director and will endeavor to show this state's advantages as to resources, and its industrial, travel, and agricultural opportunities. It may be that a huge relief map of the state will be constructed with real water in the streams and waves for the coast line. Murals will depict the history of Roanoke Island and of Kill Devil Hill, and will be the property of the state after the Fair.

REVOLT BRINGS DEATH TO FOUR

A revolt against the food served criminals in prison in Philadelphia resulted in the deaths of four prisoners. On last Friday 650 of the 1,480 inmates of the jail refused to eat supper. The strikers were put in their cells on a diet of bread and water. All but 13 later accepted their meals. They had demanded that no hamburger, spaghetti, cheese or fried egg plant be served. The four men found dead in the cells were bruised and appeared to have been scalded with hot water. They are said to have been fighting among themselves. The warden declares that they were not killed by prison discipline. Investigations will be made.

GREETING

My, what a beautiful landing I had Monday morning, and finding myself in such a wide-awake town. The first thing that struck my attention was the pretty, wide streets and those large store buildings that would be a credit even to any of the larger cities. And such beautiful homes and lawns. Even all the faces seem very familiar to me, even if I cannot call them all by their names. I wish to state to all of my friends, that all of these good roads lead to Zebulon, N. C., the place where I am now located. I am now with Whitley & Scarboro, and nothing will please me any more than have you come to see me.

Every expression and every little movement seem to say, Welcome to Zebulon.

JOE R. HINNANT.
