

COMMUNITY CORRESPONDENCE

PILOT

Mrs. H. E. Stallings returned from Rex Hospital Sunday night. She has been at the bedside of her husband for weeks. Mr. Stallings is slowly improving.

Mr. J. J. Taylor of Powellsville, N. C., returned to his home Sunday night.

Mr. Percy Jones of Raleigh spent Sunday here.

Miss Helen Pippin of Norfolk, Va., spent last week with her mother Mrs. Jenny Pippin.

Miss Ora Alford of Raleigh attended church services Friday.

Miss Edith Earl Williams of the A. C. C. in Wilson spent the week end with her people.

Miss Beryl Lee Stallings spent the week end at home.

Mr. McFaden of Washington, D. C., was here Wednesday.

Mr. M. T. Lamn was here Wednesday night.

We have a new neighbor, Mr. John Mae of Louisburg has moved in.

Miss Ruby Stallings of Raleigh, and Miss Reta Stallings of New York, were here last week.

Mr. Piggy Smith was here last week.

Miss Gay, one of the teachers, was at home last week end.

Mrs. Maggie Carmikie from Rocky Mount was here last week.

Misses Roberta Brantley, Mozelle Ray, Wilma and Darnell Philips, and Mrs. Larosa Bunn were at their homes here for the week-end.

Mr. E. R. Stallings had the misfortune of having about $250 stolen from him Thursday night of last week.

Rev. Hartsell of Bunn Baptist church attended some of our services.

CORINTH

It seems that instead of improving our Sunday School attendance average is getting lower. Let's each try to be present every Sunday and bring our average back up. Visitors welcome at all times.

Miss Ola Deane Davis who has been in Duke Hospital, Durham for the past three weeks is not improving so fast. We hope she will soon be home and well again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. O'Neal and Mrs. "Bill" Wheeler visited Mrs. Willard Gill in State Sanatorium Sunday.

Miss Louise Hinton of Earpsboro spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Irene Wilder.

Mrs. J. T. Davis visited her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Maydon of Emit, the week end.

Wallace Richardson and sister, Geneva Anne, children of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Richardson are visiting their grandparents, the Brantley Richardson's of Hales Chapel community this week.

Little Miss Wilma Davis was the week end guest of her cousin little Miss Clentis Maydon of Emit.

Thieves seemed to be on rampage in this community last week. One night Mrs. F. L. Wilder's washing was not completely dry so some bed blankets and overalls were left on the line. The thieves must have been cold or sleepy. They took the blankets and left the overalls. The next night thieves entered Mr. D. J. Smith's chicken house taking all the chickens he had except four. The reason for not taking those was that they could not be found. They were up a tree.

Mr. Ira Davis and family of near Raleigh were the Sunday guests of the R. B. Bradshaw's.

Miss Gladys Hodge of near Antioch visited Miss Ruby Ward this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse High and son, Jesse Dwight visited Mr. A. T. High and daughter Miss Rosaline High of Wendell, Sunday.

Miss Crettie Hocutt was home from Raleigh for the week end.

PLEASANT HILL

We are sorry Mr. W. A. Horton is sick.

Mr. W. M. Joyner of Raleigh visited at Mr. J. W. Gay's Sunday afternoon.

Miss Shirley Starnes has returned home from visiting her sisters in Durham.

Mrs. F. V. Hood went to Duke hospital Monday to see her brother, Rayford Corbett, who is there for treatment.

Mrs. B. K. Horton and Mrs. Irvin Privette visited Mrs. Horton's mother Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Atlas Scarboro.

Lots of the farmers are busy saving feed.

Mr. Wallace Jones of Wake Forest spent the week end with Mr. Russell Weathers.

Misses Elizabeth and Jodie Mae Weathers were visitors of Misses Nancy and Mable Parish Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Leaman Parish from the State Hospital spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Parish.

Wakelon School News

LOOKING FORWARD

The local team will play the Catholic Orphanage in Raleigh on Friday, September 30 on the Orphanage Field.

In their first home game the Wakelon eleven will meet Cary on the local field, Friday afternoon October 7. All the local sport fans are looking forward to this game with eager anticipation. It will be the first opportunity that we have had to witness the performance of the Wakelon boys. The admission charges will be ten and fifteen cents.

Wakelon will have a band this year. Under the capable leadership of Mr. MacDuffie from Wendell, the students and patrons have manifested a great interest in organizing a band in the school. By Christmas time we are hoping that at least 35 students will be organized in a band that will be a credit to all. This opportunity is offered to the students at a reasonable price, and all of them are invited to take part in this project.

Wakelon High School this year is very proud of its growth. There are fifteen more students in the high school than last year. The senior class, numbering sixty, is the largest the school has ever had. All the students are manifesting a great interest in their work and their willingness to cooperate with the school program can not be surpassed.

The school program is very well organized and everything possible is being done to meet the needs of the students. Various clubs were organized last week so that the interests of each student may have an outlet in some profitable way. All the clubs have as their aim the further preparation of the students to cope with the various situations that will be met in later life. The programs are planned by them and given by them. This acquaints them with the various duties that one has to perform in an organization. Miss Meacham is helping the Girl Reserves; Miss Glazner, the Debating Club; Miss Palmer, the Home Economics Club; Mr. Hartley and Miss Cox, the Dramatic Club; Mr. Johnston, the Science Club; Mr. McIntire, the Young Tar Heel Farmers; and Miss Toler, the Business Club. There will be two Business Clubs, one will be strictly business like and the other will have charge of the publication of the school paper under the capable guidance of Mr. Austin and Miss Toler.

INFORMATION CONCERNING WAGE-RECORDS NOW AVAILABLE FOR INSURED WORK

Any employee for whom an old-age insurance account has been established may obtain from the Social Security Board a statement, showing the amount of wages credited to his account for 1937, according to Stacey W. Wade, Field Manager for the Social Security Board at Raleigh, N. C., who said also that printed postcards containing a request for wage information may be obtained at his office, 407 Commercial Building, Raleigh, N. C. On one of these postcards the employee who wishes to inquire about his wage-record should write his name, account number, and address. The card should then be mailed to the Social Security Board, Candler Building, Baltimore, Maryland, either with a one-cent stamp on it or in a sealed and stamped envelope. Another form is also available for the use of any worker who believes that he has earned wages that were not reported. On this form the wage earner writes the name of each employer for whom he has worked, tells how long he was employed by each, and the wages he received. It is pointed out that it is impossible to provide applicants with statements of wages received in cases where the worker was engaged solely in employment not covered by the old-age insurance provisions of the Social Security Act, such as farm labor and domestic service in a private home.
