SCENT OF ROSES

From Poem by Thomas Moore

Let fate do her worst, there are relies of joy,
Bright dreams of the past, which
she cannot destroy;
Which come in the night-time of sorrow and care,
And bring back the features that joy used to wear.
Long, long be my heart with such memories filled!
Like the vase in which roses have once been distilled—
You may break, you may shatter the vase, if you will,
But the scent of the roses will hang round it still.

On Tuesday night, October 3rd the children of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Eddins gave Mrs. Eddins a surprise birthday supper. It was her fifty-third birthday.

The children spread a bountiful supper on her dining room table while she was out riding with Mr. Eddins. There was a large cake in the center of the table. It was very beautifully decorated with the inscription of "Happy Birthday Mother" on the top.

The supper was enjoyed by the following, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Eddins; Mr. and Mrs. W. ## When Sarah Lynn got AIR FEVER!

She shocked the staid Dana tribe . . . all but adorable Great Grandmother Sarah Ann, Matriarch of Danaville. For Sarah was also "one of the dark 'uns," an adventuresome soul who helped pioneer California many years ago. She scorned the soft and easy life . . . she cheered when Sarah Lynn got "air fever" and left the Dana tribe open-mouthed. And she was happy when Sarah Lynn found love in the uncharted skies, the love of intrepid Gunnar Thorwald. Follow this fascinating story serially in these columns!

STRAIT GATE

BY RUTH COMFORT MITCHELL

Beginning Next Week

past the half century mark.

In an address by Dr. B. W. Spilman, field secretary of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention reference was made to the fact that many governors of North Carolina have been prominent in church life. Max Gardner taught a class of Baptist men in Shelby for years; J. C. B. Ehringhaus conducted services for Episcopalians and sang in their choir; Governor Hoey and his teaching in the Methodist school in Raleigh have already become known all over the state. And there are whispers that Broughton has ideas about becoming governor. If so, his Sunday School work will prove no hindrance.

NEW YORK—A fact not generally known is that most of the Bibles sold in this country are printed in Belgium. Partly on this account, printing is to be displayed in historic fashion in the Belgian Building at the New York World's Fair 1939. Art binding, particularly in leather, is high craft in Belgium, so many examples of it are to be shown. One section of the exhibit is to be devoted to rare old manuscripts now in the Antwerp Museum.
