ADVENT

(Here is another hymn more than a hundred years old, yet ever new to those who rejoice over the birth of Christ.)

As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold;
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright;
So, most gracious God, may we
Evermore be led by thee.

As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore:
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek thy mercy-seat.

As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to thee, our heavenly King.

Misses Margaret Bunn, Mary Gray Pippin and Ruth Greene were home for the Thanksgiving vacation from Meredith.

Mr. Anderson was not seriously hurt.

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT TEA SATURDAY

Mrs. Graham Dean and Mrs. J. H. Saunders received at tea, Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Norman Dean of Wendell, between the hour of four and six o'clock, complimenting Miss Myatt Dean, whose marriage to Perry Leonard Carlton of Durham, will take place early in December.

Mrs. J. J. Henderson greeted the guests and introduced them to the receiving line, composed of the hostesses, Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Saunders, the bride-elect, Miss Myatt Dean; Miss Frances Henderson who will be an attendant in the wedding; Mrs. Norman Dean mother of the bride to be; Mrs. A. P. Carlton, Sr., of Durham, mother of the bride groom; Mrs. Ruric Gill of Zebulon and Misses Lizzie and Maggie Dean, sisters of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Wallace White led the way to the dining room, where Mrs. Eugene Carlton of Durham, and Mrs. W. M. Strickland, seated at opposite ends of the central table, poured tea. An imported lace cloth covered the tea table, which held a lovely arrangement of white chrysanthemums and fern in a silver bowl, as central decoration. This was surrounded by white tapers in silver holders. Suspended from the chandelier were white satin ribbons, tied with orange blossoms, lilies of the valley and fern, and ending with miniature wedding bells. The dining room was all in white green and silver.

Mrs. N. H. Farmer, Mrs. Theodric Martin, Miss Sulou Williamson, Miss Mabel Dean, Mrs. Newton Branch, of Selma; Miss Frances Branch and Miss Shirley Dean, served Russian tea, cream cheese and olive sandwiches, cakes decorated with orange blossoms, mints and nuts.

Mrs. Battle Robertson received at the hall door and directed callers to the music room, where a program of music was rendered by Misses Ela Terry and Virginia Hester and Mrs. L. C. Ledford.

Miss Lodema Morris presided over the bride's register.

The Dean home was beautifully decorated throughout with fall flowers in harmonizing colors.

Goodbyes were said by Mrs. Irby Gill, Zebulon.

Around one hundred guests called during the afternoon.
