

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISERS

SUPPLY STORE SALE

The furniture sale at Zebulon Supply Store is keeping many workers busy and is adding much to the comfort and convenience of those who buy at the special prices that prevail for twenty days only from the date, Dec. 7.

Very pleasing to the editor was the remark made by Raleigh Alford of the Zebulon Supply Co. for when the associate editor of the RECORD commented upon the fact that two trucks were being loaded with furniture at one time. "Yes," he said, "we are really having a sale; and advertising put it across." This paper helped advertise the sale and thus feels a sort of proprietary interest in its progress.

KANNAN'S CAFE

The only cafe for some time in Zebulon was Kannan's. Only yesterday a stranger was asked where he could get the best dinner, and was told "go to Kannan's". Barker always has a smile for his customers and a good meal behind it. He also runs a cafe in Wendell. If you get hungry during the Christmas, see Kannan.

THE PEOPLE'S BANK AND TRUST CO.

The local bank is a branch of one of the largest and safest banking institutions in this section. It is the successor of three other banks. Each year it proves its claim to the support of this community by its service and increased business. It has the confidence of the business people of this community. Messrs. Brown and Massey are in charge and welcome the citizen whether he has a deposit to make or a loan to negotiate. Their motto might well be service, security, satisfaction.

J. A. KEMP AND SON

This old standby of the farmers especially is the oldest business of its kind in Zebulon. After doing business in Wakefield for many years, this mercantile establishment came to Zebulon. Kemps are conservative, courteous, and consistent in all their dealing with the public. What Kemps tell you, you may rely on it. They carry almost everything for the home or farm—dry goods, groceries, farm equipment and feeds. They carry the famous Melrose flour, one of the best for cakes and pies.

STEDMAN STORES CO.

This is the second so-called chain store to locate in Zebulon. It has been here so long that one almost forgets that it is not an old business. Buying as they do for a large number of stores in Eastern Carolina, they are able to sell very reasonably. Bob Sawyer is in charge of the local store and everybody likes Bob. He is specializing on Christmas confectionaries and fruits. Go around and look at his candy and fruit display.

SHORR'S DEPT. STORE

Several years ago Stanley Shorr was in Zebulon. After looking over the business situation he remarked, "Zebulon needs a good dry goods store". Not long after he rented the old theatre building, had it renovated and remodelled and moved in with a brand new stock of dry goods—suits, shoes, dresses, coats, notions—in fact, as he said, "a good dry goods store". His motto was, "We will not be undersold, knowingly." He has overbought for the Christmas trade and is offering his goods at a sacrifice to the public. Read his full-page ad. in this paper, then see Stanley Shorr for your Christmas needs.

A. G. KEMP

A. G. Kemp's store has been doing business almost since the first day of Zebulon's history and it continues to supply almost everything the average person or home needs. It is almost a saying that if you can't find it elsewhere go to A. G. Kemp and you will get it. Besides a full line of dry goods and groceries, Mr. Kemp specializes in high grade seed of all kinds for the garden and farm.

BUNN ELECTRIC CO.

This was the first electric company established in Zebulon that carries a full line of electrical equipment. William Bunn is the owner and is one of Zebulon's most progressive young business men. He has a full line of Philco radios as well as refrigerators and stoves. He also has a good repair department to serve the public.

THE CITY MARKET

This is Zebulon's youngest yet one of its largest grocery stores. It is owned by Mr. R. H. Bridgers, who also owns the Little River Ice Co. This store carries a full line of groceries, meats and vegetables. They give courteous service and the store is kept thoroughly sanitary. Visit this store for your Christmas candies. They make a specialty of confectionaries for the holiday trade.

ZEBULON DRUG CO.

For more than a quarter of a century this drug store has been serving the people of Zebulon and community. They carry not only a full line of drugs and have an expert prescription service, but also a great many articles suitable for Christmas gifts. Besides the courteous proprietor Messrs. Mullins Finch and Kennedy serve the public with drinks, candies, and novelties of almost every kind. When you do your Christmas buying, think of the Zebulon Drug Co.

TEMPLE MARKET

Temple Market is an old Zebu-lon institution. Established years ago by Mr. L. R. Temples, it continues today under the courteous and efficient management of his son Wallace. It has specialized in fresh meats and when housekeepers think of a good roast or steak, they know Temple likely has it if it can be found in town. They also carry a full line of candies, nuts, fruits and groceries suitable for Christmas.

BAER AND SONS

Known as the "new store" since it has been established only a few years, this store carries a complete line of dry goods consisting of ready-to-wear, and bolt goods. The building itself is one of Zebulon's best and most conveniently arranged stores. Miss Rose Baer, the manager, is a good business woman and will give you service with a saving on what you buy.

PERRY AND BENTON

This is Zebulon's newest electrical supply service business. They are on main street and carry a line of standard electrical goods. They specialize on Westinghouse ranges and refrigerators and standard radios. They give expert service to anything electric. Christmas decorations may be purchased of Perry and Benton.

MASSEY LUMBER COMPANY

One of the best equipped lumber plants in eastern Carolina is Massey's. They have a lumber yard where almost any piece or load of lumber may be found. In their shop they have equipment that will produce in a first class way anything from a piece of molding to anything to build a house—windows, doors, frames, etc. M. L. Massey is manager, assisted by his brother Riggsby and nephews, besides a number of expert carpenters and machinists. Their motto is "Everything to Build Anything".

JOHNSON THE JEWELER

This is Zebulon's only jewelry store. Mr. Johnson, the proprietor, is a young man who knows the jewelry business thoroughly. He is a graduate of a watchmakers' school and what he does not know about repairing a watch few others do. And he has the latest lathe and other tools for doing it. He carries a line of watches, pins, bracelets, chains, pens and a great many other articles that are just the things for Christmas gifts.

FOR SALE—MULE, WAGON and Harness. 2 Hogs, weight about 300 lbs. M. S. Chamblee, Zebulon.
