Good morning, Mrs. Smith. I'm from the gas company. I understand there is something in the house that won't work.

Mrs. Smith: Yes, he's up-stairs.

Once we thought work was a curse; then it came to us that it was a necessary evil; and yesterday the truth dawned upon us that it is a blessed privilege.—Elbert Hubbard.

Once upon a time there was a man on a street car who got up and offered his seat to a lady. The woman fainted. When she recovered consciousness she thanked him. Then he fainted.

Remember when you boast that you are a self-made man, your friends may not know whether you are boasting or apologizing.

Dinna curse him, Sir. I have heard a man say that a curse is like a stone flung up to the heavens, and most like to return on the head that sent it.—Scott.

NOTICE OF SALE

Under and by virtue of the authority and power contained in that certain order of the clerk of the superior court of Wake County in that certain action or special proceeding entitled "Rayford Alford, et al., v. Rayford Alford, administrator of M. A. Alford, et al." entered on the 30th day of January, 1939, the undersigned commissioner will offer for sale for cash at public auction at the court house door of Wake County in Raleigh, at or about the hour of twelve o'clock noon, on Friday, 3 MARCH, 1939, the following described lands:

Tract No. 1: Being in Little River Township, said county, and beginning at a stake on the Raleigh and Tarboro road, A. A. Pippin's corner; thence eastwardly with said road 172 poles to E. D. Massey's corner; thence N. 7 degrees E. 98 poles 23 links to a stake in the new road in E. D. Massey's line; M. Hicks' corner; thence N. 75 degrees W. 149.8 poles with M. Hicks' line to a rock on a ditch bank, A. A. Pippin's corner; thence S. 20 degrees W. 103 1-2 poles to a stake on the Raleigh and Tarboro Road, Pippin's corner, the point of beginning, containing 101 3-4 acres by survey made on 3 January, 1913.

SAVE AND EXCEPT from the said tract above described, a certain part or parcel of said lands, which were conveyed to O. H. and L. L. Massey by R. J. Whitley, deceased, the same being recorded in Book 316 at page 479 in the office of the register of deeds of Wake County, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at an iron stake on the north side of the Raleigh and Tarboro road, one-half mile west of Wakefield, N. C., at the southeast corner of A. A. Pippin's land; thence N. 19 degrees 35 minutes E. 1725 feet to a stone in A. A. Pippin's corner; thence S. 74 degrees 58 minutes E. 1256 feet to a stake in Miley Hicks' line; thence S. 19 degrees 35 minutes W. 1705 feet to the center of the Raleigh and Tarboro Road; thence along said road N. 78 degrees 20 minutes W. 752 feet; thence along said road N. 76 degrees W. 211 feet; thence along said road N. 69 degrees 45 minutes W. 309 feet to the beginning, containing 50 acres, as surveyed and plotted by R. C. Ball, the same being a part of the farm known as the W. H. Brantley place.

Tract No. 2: Being in Little River Township, Wake County, beginning at a stake on the Raleigh and Tarboro Road at the northeast corner of B. B. Brantley, deceased (now E. H. Kemp's line); thence southwardly with said line about 400 yards to a small branch; thence northwardly up the run of said branch or ditch to where it crosses Raleigh and Tarboro road; thence westwardly with said road 142 yards to the beginning, containing six or less, the same being a portion of the estate of S. Brantley, deceased.

After making the deduction on account of the above exception, the two tracts of land herein described contain fifty-eight (58) acres, more or less, and are the same lands described in a deed from A. R. House, Commissioner, recorded in Book 541 at page 359, Wage County Registry, to C. V. Whitley; and described in a quitclaim deed from H. W. Whitley and wife and R. J. Whitley to C. V. Whitley in 1929. Reference is hereby expressly had for a further and more adequate description of the said lands to Book 585 at page 381 in the office of the register of deeds of Wake County, North Carolina.

Dated and posted this 30 January, 1939.

CHARLES P. GREEN,
Commissioner.
