MISS JONES HONORED BY MRS. THOMPSON

Among the loveliest of autumnal social events here was on Saturday evening when Mrs. Leon Thompson entertained at her home honoring Miss Dorothy Jones, bride-elect of this month. Eight tables were appointed in the bridal motif and placed in a setting of white chrysanthemums and fall flowers carrying out the colors of white and green.

After a number of progressions Miss Ena Dell Anderson received high score, Mrs. Charles E. Flowers second high and Miss Marian Whitlock low.

The honoree was presented with gold salt and pepper shakers.

In a setting of white chrysanthemums illuminated by soft candlelight, the hostess assisted by Mesdames G. R. Massey and L. H. Jones, mother of the bride-elect, served molded bridal ices, wedding cakes, heart shaped mints and nuts, each carrying out the green and white motif.

SENIORS HONOR MR. MOSER

(By JUANITA FERRELL)

Members of the senior class met at the Baptist church Monday evening at six o'clock. We were on the porch and singing "Happy Birthday To You" a few minutes later in Mr. Moser's home. Mr. Moser was very much surprised to open the door and see the class so happy and gay. Bobby Alford, our president, presented the gift with a speech. He received a billfold and ring key set. The cake was brought in. It was a beauty, trimmed with red and white roses. On the top was written "Happy Birthday Mr. Moser." The cake was cut and each one served. Everyone left with a smile.

Miss Doris Eddins is recovering from an attack of Pleurisy and is now able to sit up a part of the time.

Mrs. Wayland Hood was in the Record office Thursday to subscribe for the paper for her son's wife, Mrs. Aubrey Hood of Morrisville.

C. I. Robinson of Garland, clerk of the Eastern Association, was in Zebulon Thursday on business connected with the printing of the minutes of his association.

MISSES RICHARDSON ENTERTAIN FOR BRIDAL COUPLE

On last Saturday night, Misses Anne and Caroline Richardson entertained at a Hallowe'en party at their country home "Rosedale Manor" near Wendell, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Jones of Raleigh, who were married earlier in the fall. Mrs. Jones was formerly Miss Elma Joyner of Roxboro, and was a roommate of Caroline Richardson in college.

The home was attractively decorated with lovely fall flowers and Hallowe'en decorations were arranged throughout the front of the house. In the dining room and sun porch Hallowe'en pumpkins and balloons were seen. The dining room table was arranged with a lovely Irish linen cloth and centerpiece of fall flowers with candles at the ends of the table.

Music was furnished during the evening by Misses Margaret Lewis and Susie Hester at the piano and singing by Joe Richardson. Dancing was enjoyed.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Jane Blalock and Margaret Lukas of Wake Forest. Fruit punch was served from an appointed table with mixed sandwiches, ritz crackers with cream cheese and peanuts. Contests stunts and games were enjoyed and souvenirs were given the guests.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Jones, Major Jones, Mayo Bailey, Crayton Williams and Virginia Sumner of Raleigh; Fred Hoyle of Zebulon, Miss Jane Blalock, Miss Margaret Lukas and Dr. Harrell of Wake Forest, Misses Margaret Lewis, Frances Henderson, Sulou Williamson, Susie Hester, Elaine Robertson; Joe Richardson, Dwight Mattox, Kenneth Herndon and Lonnie Knott of Wendell and Russell Griffin of Knightdale.

PARTIES HONOR MISS JONES

Miss Dorothy Jones, bride-elect, was honored at two parties this week, the first being given on Tuesday evening by Mrs. Frank Kemp who entertained with bridge. The tables were placed in a setting made more attractive by massed chrysanthemums in yellow and white.

Present were Misses Dorothy Jones, Ruby Dawson, Marie Watson, Hazel Carowan, Marion Whitlock; Mesdames Charles Flowers, Norman Screws, H. C. Wade, B. F. Ivey, A. V. Medlin, C. V. Whitley, James Allen, Julian Horton, R. V. Brown, Russel Temple, Graham Conn. Miss Jones was given a pickle fork in her pattern of silver.

Playing resulted in high score prize, a permanent, going to Mrs. A. V. Medlin, and low score, a facial and finger-wave, going to Mrs. B. F. Ivey.

Refreshments of congealed salad, pink and green sandwiches, olive roses, ritz, and coffee were served.

Mrs. L. H. Jones came in for refreshments.

Mrs. J. G. Kemp and daughter, Mrs. James Allen of Waynesville were hostesses in the Kemp home on Wednesday evening, complimentary to Miss Jones, the occasion being a cake-cutting. In addition to the honoree and her fiancé, J. W. Narron, the following were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stallings, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Screws, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Privette, Mr. and Mrs. Willard White, Mrs. L. H. Jones; Misses Marie Watson, Ruby Dawson, Marion Whitlock; Douglas Finch, Robert D. Massey.

From a prettily appointed table the tiered and decorated wedding cake was cut and with it were served punch, mints, nuts, and coffee.

To Miss Jones was given a butter knife in her pattern of silver.

CLUB TO MEET

The Zebulon Garden Club will hold its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 14, at 3:30 in the home of Mrs. Wallace Chamblee, with Mrs. Jethro Stell and Mrs. Andrew Jones Associate hostesses.

The topic for the afternoon will be Shrubs, Landscaping and Pruning and will be discussed by Mr. D. E. McCarthy of Raleigh.
