MRS. THEO. B. DAVIS, Editor

Please send local or personal items to the RECORD shop by Tuesday night, if possible

William Hoyle was home for the week end from Laurinburg, where he is a member of the high school faculty.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Gill and baby son came from Wake Forest Sunday to visit Mrs. Victoria Gil.

N. P. Stone of Winston-Salem and his friend, Mr. Troutman, were in Zebulon during the weekend, visiting the J. M. Whitleys, the C. V. Whitleys and Mrs. Will Wiggs.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Weathersby and son, Charles Allen, spent the weekend in Clover, Va., with Mrs. Weathersby's mother, Mrs. A. L. Williams.

Mrs. Kenneth Kennedy of Cherraw, S. C. was here with her parents, the J. K. Barrows, from Wednesday of last week until Sunday, returning with Mr. Kennedy who came up for the day.

Editor and Mrs. Davis appreciate an invitation from Mrs. M. McRae Faison to be present at the celebration of the one-hundredth anniversary of the founding of St. Mary's Female Seminary, St. Mary's City, Md. Mrs. Faison is a member of the faculty of this school, which is built upon the site of the first settlement and the first capital of the state. Open House will be held with afternoon tea and an appropriate program.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Muse and sons of Raleigh visited the J. V. Coxes here on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Grace Southall, formally with the Elite Beauty Salon, is now employed in Baltimore. She is staying with her sister who, before marriage, was Miss Ruth Southall.

Miss Blanche Bryant came here recently from Tarboro to take the place in the Elite Beauty Salon formally held by Miss Southall.

Miss Margaret Barrow of Charlotte was here for the week end with her parents, the J. K. Barrows.

Mrs. Zellie N. Culpepper left for New York Friday of last week to visit her sister, Mrs. Joseph Kotzum, and to attend a week of grand opera. Mrs. Culpepper will visit relatives in Baltimore and Richmond on her return home which will be the latter part of next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Godwin and baby of Henderson were the week-end guests of Mrs. Godwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ferebee.

Mrs. Harold Griffin of Glendale School spent the week-end with Miss Ruby Stell.

Mrs. Clifton Pippin is attending the annual meeting of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union in Wilmington this week, representing the Wakefield societies.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hilliard have moved from near Garner back to their home in the Friendship section. This is good news for their many friends. Mr. Hilliard was in the office on Friday of last week to renew his Record subscription.

From Mrs. W. P. Howard (nee Iris Massey) comes a note saying, "Please change my address from Goldsboro to 94 Gleason Rd., Lexington, Mass. I just can't do without my Zebulon paper. We are living in Mass. now, and it is pretty up here, but right now we have about four feet of snow on the ground. I went skiing last Thursday."

Mrs. Hoyle at the Jiffy Grill offers Sunday dinners that give the housekeeper without a maid a chance to rest and enjoy the companionship of her family. This cafe has an A grade.

'BARACAS HAVE FISH FRY

Baptist Baracas under the leadership of W. D. Spencer have made notable progress in the last few months. They celebrated with a fish fry in the Masonic Hall on Wednesday night. With William Cheaves and Bob Sawyer cooking, L. E. Long and W. D. Spencer serving the hot fish, Zollie Culpepper pouring coffee, and every member helping to make the occasion a happy one, "a good time was had by all."

The blessing was asked by Prof. Hamrick. Special guests were: the pastor, G. J. Griffin; former pastor, R. H. Herring; S. S. Supt., L. M. Massey; Commissioner Jesse Kilpatrick. Approximately 75 were present.

Every Baraca is proud of his class and wants to make it still better. Dug Spencer promises another grand surprise in the near future. Every man in the community not affiliated with another class is cordially invited to join us next Sunday morning at 9:45.
