MRS. THEO B. DAVIS, Editor

Be sure all personals are in by Tuesday preceding day of publication.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Davis of Buckhead, Ga., visited the former's brother, Theo. B. Davis and family the first part of this week, leaving on Tuesday for Hartsville, S. C., where they will stop for a short stay with a niece, Mrs. Otis Radford.

Among the newcomers to the community are Mr. and Mrs. Currin. Mr. Currin is a nephew of W. N. Pitts.

Mrs. Hugh Richardson and little daughter, Nancy, left on Sunday for their home in Santa Fe, New Mexico, after visiting Mrs. Richardson's parents, the A. C. Dawsons, and other relatives here and Mr. Richardson's relatives in Wendell.

Mayor Avon Privette left the first of the week for Miami, Fla., where he will spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Harris and children of Raleigh, formerly of Zebulon, were here Monday afternoon. Mrs. Harris visited Mrs. L. E. Long and Mary Sue.

Miss Evelyn White is in Wood and Herring Hospital, Wilson, where she underwent an appendectomy last week.

Mrs. Bill Strickland and son were in Zebulon for the week-end, coming from Fort Bragg, where they live now. Mr. Strickland came on Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Bowling is in a Rocky Mount hospital, where she was taken the first of the week for an operation. She is thought to be doing well.

Mrs. Earl Horton is now able to sit up for a while each day, but is still far from being strong.

ELLINGTON-PEARCE

Mr. and Mrs. Joe T. Pearce announce the marriage of their daughter, Ollie Mae, to B. C. Ellington on Saturday, January 11. Mr. Ellington is the son of Mr. Frank Ellington of Franklin County. The couple plan to make their home in Zebulon.

MR. AND MRS. BRIDGERS ENTERTAIN

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bridgers entertained last week with a barbecue supper at the ice plant, honoring Mr. Bridger's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bridgers of Panama, Canal Zone, now in the States on a visit.

Other guests were Zebulon employees of the Little River Ice Company and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Bridgers, A. O. Bridgers, Mr. and Mrs. Dover Hinton and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Daniels of Wendell.

CORINTH-HOLDER CLUB WINS

In the quarterly standing of the Bible clubs taught by Rev. C. F. Allen. Corinth-Holder Club won with a high average of 85 per cent. The standing of the clubs is as follows: Corinth-Holder, 85 per cent; Glendale, 79 per cent; Wakelon, 60 per cent.

The following made the honor roll at Wakelon Club with a grade of 85: Emma Jean Pace, Rachel Horton, Mazie Horton, and Betty King.

At Corinth-Holder the following names are on the honor roll: Dorothy Mae Thomasson, Alice Godwin, Elbert Price, Wanda Wilder, Charles G. Parrish, Eunice Creech, Ruby Godwin, Peggy O'Neal, Dwight Price, Louise Thomasson, Myrtis Mae Wall, Doris Wilder, Vara Wright.

Clyde R. Greene of Boone, clerk of the Three Forks Baptist Association, and his father, N. M. Greene, associational missionary, were pleasant visitors in the Record office Wednesday. Mr. Clyde Greene is having the Record Company shop print the centennial edition of his associational minutes. With numerous photographs and the history of the Three Forks from its organization to the present, the issue will be of wide and unusual interest, and Mr. Greene has done his share of the work with care and efficiency.

CLASS SOCIAL

Mrs. R. H. Bridgers was hostess on Tuesday night to her Sunday school class, of which Mrs. S. Flowers is teacher. Attendance was good and an enjoyable program of stunts and contests was directed by Mrs. Fred Page. It was decided to hold monthly meetings during this year, with business session and short program preceding a social hour.

The hostess, assisted by her daughters, Misses Lorraine and Ruby Bridgers, served refreshments.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Tuesday night, January 21, Zebulon Junior Woman's Club held its regular meeting in Woman's Club building. Following the customary business session officers for the year of 1941-42 were elected. New officers are: M. Norman Screws, president; M. Frank Kemp, vice-president; M. George Griffin, secretary; Mrs. Bennie Bullock, assistant secretary; Miss Ruby Stell, program and yearbook chairman. Mrs. Russell Temple and Miss Ruby Dawson were reelected treasurer and press reporter, respectively.

Mrs. Leon Thompson was program leader for the night and presented the Rev. Mr. Charles Allen, who spoke on the significance of the Panama Canal in the present world crisis.

After the program, Mrs. Robert Dawson, Miss Ruby Dawson, and Mrs. Bennie Bullock, hostesses, served ice cream sandwiches.

COULD IT HAPPEN TO YOU?

W. Banks Horton—this name is being talked about by everyone in Yadkinville, N. C. Not only because he is a well-known and good lawyer but because twice in a row name was called on Bank Night at the local theater, and twice he there and received the money. When came the next Bank Night. Out came the man with the barrel of names. As he came out he laughed and called for W. Banks Horton to just come on down and get the money. Mr. Horton got up as if to go down. Then the name was drawn. The man looked at the name, turned red and stuttered for a minute. Then read out the name: W. Banks Horton.

The house was silent for a moment. Mr. Horton was unable to move, so stunned was he. Then the audience hollered in protest that something was wrong. Mr. Horton got up and went to the front and had them put his name back, and told them to redraw. Everyone cheered Mr. Horton for his sportsmanship.

This time the barrel was turned end over end and over and over the other way, then taken up and shaken up good.

Then Yadkinville's most prominent citizen was called to the front to draw out the name. He came forward and was blindfolded. Then in went his hand into the barrel and out it came with one little card. The blindfold was removed and he went to read the name. He stopped and looked out at the audi-
