port; Mr. and Mrs. John Finch and daughter, Wilson; Mrs. Redding Lamm, Wilson; Miss Mary Margaret Finch, Wilson.

Courtesies

Among the courtesies shown Miss Mary Grey Pippin prior to her wedding last Friday was a supper on Thursday evening before the rehearsal when Mr. and Mrs. Joe Knott entertained the bridal party, also inviting the ministers who were to officiate and their wives. The Knott home was beautified with summer flowers and a three-course meal was served. The hostess presented the bride-elect with crystal in her pattern.

After the rehearsal on Thursday night, Mrs. Eugene Jones and Mrs. Frank Sheffield, aunts of the bride-elect, entertained at a cake cutting honoring Miss Pippin. The Jones home was decorated with tall baskets of hydrangeas in blue and pink while silver vases of roses were used in the dining-room. The guest list included the entire bridal party and a few other friends.

Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Strickland announce the birth of a daughter at Mary Elizabeth hospital on Friday, June 27. Mrs. Strickland was formerly Miss Drusilla Ferrell of Wendell.

GARNER WANTS SMOOTH WIRE

Former Vice-President John Nance Garner, who is known as an ardent hunter and fisherman, is advocating the use of smooth wire by ranchmen and farmers, especially on the bottom of their fences. Deer and other game animals often crawl under fences instead of jumping them. A cut

Manslaughter

In Franklin County, North Carolina, a man was convicted of manslaughter for shooting at a wild turkey. The hunter did not know that another man was anywhere near when he shot. He missed the turkey, but killed the man. However, as the hunter was hunting during closed season, and was therefore engaged in an unlawful act, the court held him guilty of manslaughter.

Look Out for the Birds

Insectivorous birds help farmers protect their crops from insects. Blackbirds, wrens, and mocking birds are protected by the Federal Government because of their assistance to mankind.
