

This, That, and the Other

By Mrs. Theo. B. Davis

Three men were earnestly discussing the present world situation and entered into a verbal triple agreement that war has to come for the United States and "the sooner the better."

I am not questioning their sincerity, but could not help noting that each of the three is beyond draft age, yet not one has a son old enough to be called.

On last Saturday afternoon a small boy sat on the bench in front of the City Cafe with a little dog in his arms. Both were looking with bright eyes at the changing scene before them.

Feeling sure that I had known the child, I used the dog as a means to opening conversation and inquired what kind it was.

"A short-tailed dog," was the answer.

"But what breed?" I asked, and again was told it was a short-tailed, the owner turning it end for end so that I might see. He was right. It was. By that time I felt his own name might be learned and requested him to tell it to me.

"Charles Brooks Finch," he said faster than I could listen; but before I had time to ask him again he asked me: "Did you ever know Mr. Elmer Finch? He lives near Zebulon. I'm his grandson."

I had known him when he was a very small boy. He lives in Raleigh now and is in second grade at Murphy. When told that two of my grandsons go to Hayes Barton he was a bit sorry for them because Murphy is a little better school besides having more upstairs; but he knew Bob and Eric were not to blame for not being Murphy pupils. In Raleigh you have to go to the nearest school; and Hayes Barton is about next to Murphy.

It would be hard to say when I enjoyed a talk more.

It was in the City Market last Saturday I saw the lady who recognized me though she had been in my home only once, and that about twenty-five years ago when she was Miss Ray. Her father once owned the land on which our house is built. She is now Mrs. Ferrell and lives near Duke's Lake. She said she still smiles when she remembers her call in our home.

She and a young man came with a couple who wanted my husband to marry them; but they had not notified him ahead of the hour and he was out making pastoral visits. Not only that, but I had chosen that time to clean out under the front porch, and when the four young people drove up I had to come out just as I was to ask them in.

I am distinctly not at my best when crawling on all-fours from under a porch, and it is hard to be a gracious hostess when one knows she has not only dirt on face, hands and clothes, but sand in her shoes. However, a wedding fee was in prospect and I rounded up the older children and sent them out hunting their father. He was finally located and hurried home; the bride pinned her corsage on her pretty blue dress, gave her hair a few smoothing pats, straightened her new blue hat, and the ceremony was performed.

Mrs. Ferrell said it was the hunt for the preacher that amused her so much, but if she also included me among the funny things that day, I could not blame her.

Local High School Beats Spring Hope

The Wakelon High Bulldogs rolled to a 40-0 triumph over Coach Milan Zori's Spring Hope eleven here last Friday in its season's opener. The local team completely outclassed their opponents in turning in 14 first downs to one for Spring Hope.

Leading the bulldogs in their first 1941 triumph was Donald Joyner, quarterback, who turned in touchdown runs of 25 and 30 yards. Leamon Pearce, fullback, plunged over center for two touchdowns. Other scores were turned in by Ervin Joye, left end, on a pass received in the end zone from Joyner, and Billy Green who scored standing up on an end-around. Joye converted two extra points from placement, and Pearce plunged over center for two.

Featuring the fine defensive play of the locals were Ervin, Joye and James Alford, right tackle. The entire line played heads-up ball including Hubert Clark, center, who intercepted a pass and returned it to the opponent's five yard line. Tom Liles and Harvey Hood played a fine defensive game and Hood teamed well with Billy Keith, blocking back, in running interference for the local ball carriers. George Henry Mitchell, left tackle, turned in a fine game on both offense and defense.

Coach Armstrong was especially pleased with the fine brand of play of James Fowler, wingback; Billy Keith, blocking back; Harold Pippin, wingback; and Hubert Clark, center. These boys will see a great deal of action in every game.

The following boys started for the locals:

l.e.—Ervin Joye
l.t.—George H. Mitchell
l.g.—Tom Liles (co-captain)
c.—Hubert Clark
r.g.—Harvey Hood
r.t.—James Alford (co-captain)
r.e.—Billy Green
q.b.—Donald Joyner
r.h.—James Fowler
l.h.—Billy Keith
f.b.—Leamon Pearce

Special Honors For Children

At the Promotion Exercises at the Baptist Sunday school last Sunday special honors were won by those who had done outstanding work during the year.

Mrs. Russel Temple of the Intermediate department, named Dorothy Ann Glover, Joyce Temple, Dorothy Mizelle, Allan Pippin, Rebecca Horton and Mary Alice Conn as honor pupils.

In Mrs. F. E. Bunn's Junior department highest honors went to Nancy Whitley, Charles Horton and Hilda Lewis. Mrs. S. A. Horton, teacher in this department, has taught three years without missing a Sunday.

Bibles furnished by the Sunday school were given pupils who were promoted to the Junior Department, as they are supposed henceforth to use the Bible in addition to quarterlies in preparation of the lessons each week.

Beauty Patron Loses Glasses

Mrs. Nellie Kemp wants to know who left a pair of glasses in her beauty shop about six weeks ago. Mrs. Kemp is keeping them for the owner, but has little idea who she is. Please call.

Town Manager Now in Bank

The new Town Manager, Leon Thompson, asks the Record to state that his temporary office will be at the Peoples Bank and Trust Co. After two weeks he hopes to be located in permanent quarters.

Marine Chutists on the Job

Above, United States Marine Corps parachutists pick an assembly point before taking to the air. Below, Marine chutists man Thompson submachine guns. They are trained in all types of weapons.

JAYCEE SUPPER

The Zebulon Junior Chamber of Commerce will hold a dinner meeting at the Woman's Club next Monday night at 8:00 p. m. Eastern Standard Time.

A special program with visiting speakers and other entertainers has been prepared. All regular members, former members, and prospective members are invited to attend the meeting.

Over Half-Million Banked in September

As one proof that Zebulon is in the midst of a prosperous community this fact may be cited:

During the month of September the Peoples Bank and Trust Co., received 1,937 deposits. The amount totalled $500,511.51, or an average of more than $258.00 per depositor. With ginning of cotton only well begun, October should equal, if not surpass the month just ended.

Study Course for Methodists

Women of the Methodist church expect an interesting day on Tuesday, October 7, when they will study Christians and World Order. The local church will be hostess at lunch to women of Wendell and Knightdale. They are fortunate in having as leader Mrs. B. F. Boone, conference chairman of Missionary Education.

Class work begins at 9:45 a. m., and a large attendance is hoped for.

7:30 Mission night. All missionary organizations meet at this hour.

Rotary Club Has Its 86th 100 Per Cent Meeting

Several New Members Are Welcomed Into Local Group

The Rotary club held another 100 per cent meeting September 26. Robert Massey had the program and his speaker was Professor Armstrong of Wakelon faculty. His subject was Athletics. He told of how the boys were trying to do this year in Wakelon high school. He said they were close to the bottom last year but their intentions were to be at the top if not on top this year. He mentioned how the boys get acquainted by going into other schools, meeting the boys and seeing what they were trying to do. In a football game every one has to think and act quickly. It helps to develop a well, strong physical body and also making them play fair and square which helps to build good character. Professor Armstrong was enthused over his boys and from the expression in the way he talked, was putting everything he could in it for the sake of his boys at Wakelon.

The Rotary club welcomed the following new members: Cleaton Armstrong, professor of athletics, Henry Kirby, teacher of science, both teachers in Wakelon high school; Leon Thompson, new town manager; and Aden Hambrick, professor of Samaria school. We welcome these additions to our club and trust they will be 100 per cent members. There were no visitors.

Plowing Stalks Under Prevents Insect Hordes

Plowing under cotton and tobacco stalks is a simple, effective means of combatting hordes of insect pests that will attack these two major cash crops next year, says J. O. Rowell, extension entomologist of N. C. State College.

Many tobacco stalks have already been killed but those growers who still have stalks growing in the fields should act immediately in destroying them.

Tobacco stalks develop suckers, which furnish a food supply for large numbers of flea beetles, horn worms, bud worms, and other destructive pests until frost.

If the development of these suckers is prevented, most of the insects will starve to death or will go into winter hibernation so weak they cannot emerge the following spring and lay eggs for the 1942 crop of pests. A good cover crop should follow the stalk plowing.

Cotton farmers, now sending their lint to market, should take the same precautions. Every effort should be made to pick cotton as soon as possible, and then destroy all stalks with a good stalk cutter. Then the land should be plowed, disced, and sown to a winter cover crop.

This procedure will prevent the late development of boll weevils and will do more than any other one thing to insure fewer weevils in 1942. Especially is this important this fall, since weevils staged one of their biggest attacks in years on the 1941 cotton crop.

linule is 15. There is no open season on Woodcock and Jacksnipe. The possession of one woodcock in daily bag limit or in possession limit is lawful.

1941 Game Schedule Given Record Readers

A summary of the open hunting seasons, bag limits and special regulations for the 1941-42 season was released recently by Hinton James, state game commissioner.

The summary is not published in its released form, but has been edited to apply to the counties in this immediate section. There are some exceptions to nearly all the open seasons and bag limits which apply only to other parts of the state.

The open season on bear will be from October 1 to January 1, with the day and season bag limits being two.

Male deer may be hunted from October 1 to January 1, but there are many counties listed as exceptions. There is no open season in Alleghany, Ashe, Cherokee, Clay, Graham, Macon, Surry, Swain, Wilkes and Yadkin counties, and in Maxton township, Robeson county, and Stewartville township, Scotland county.

Deer may be hunted in Sampson county from November 1 to November 30 only, and in Avery, Burke, Caldwell, McDowell, Mitchell, Watauga and Yancey counties from November 1 to November 15. Cumberland, Hoke and Moore counties will have a split season of September 1 to January 1. Bag limit for deer is one in a day and three in a season.

There is no limit on the number of 'possums or raccoons which may be taken with gun or dogs only from October 1 to February 15.

There is no bag limit on 'possums, raccoons, mink, and muskrat trapped during the period of November 1 to February 15. The trapping period in Camden, Chowan, Currituck, Dare, Gates, Pasquotank and Perquimans is from December 1 to February 15. The trapping season in Brunswick county is from November 15 to February 15.

Counties closed to trapping of 'possum, raccoon, mink and muskrat are Bladen, Columbus, Craven, Duplin, Graham, Greene, Haywood, Hoke, Pender, Robeson, Sampson, Wayne and Wilson, except on own premises for protection of domestic fowl or crops. All counties west of Surry, Wilkes, Alexander, Catawba and Cleveland are closed except that steel traps may be set for muskrat and mink in the water and along streams in the cultivated portion along the streams.

There is no open season in North Carolina on otter, fox squirrel, boomer (Southern Red) beaver, buffalo, elk, deer and other protected wild birds and animals. There is no closed season on wildcat, weasel and skunk.

The quail season has been set for November 20 to January 31, with a daily bag limit of 10 and a season limit of 150. Quail may not be hunted in the following counties on lay days: Beaufort, Bladen, Carteret, Columbus, Craven, Cumberland, Duplin, Greene, Hyde, Jones, Lenoir, Onslow, Pamlico, Pitt, Pender, Robeson, Washington. Hunting or taking of quail in these counties will be permitted only on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from November 20 to January 31.

Rabbit may be hunted from November 20 to January 31. There is no bag limit except in west of Alleghany, Wilkes, Caldwell, Burke, and Rutherford counties, where the bag limit is 10 per day.

Turkeys may be hunted from November 20 to January 31 except in Alleghany, Iredell, Johnston, Randolph, Montgomery, Surry, Yadkin and in west of Wilkes, Caldwell, Burke and Rutherford, where there is no open season. The bag limit is one a day, three a season.

The ruffed grouse season will be from November 20 to January 1 and the daily bag limit is two. The season limit is 10. Russian boar may be hunted from October 20 to January 1 except in Haywood county where there is no open season. The daily and season limit on boar is two.

The fox season will be regulated by counties, James reported. In those counties not having a local fox law, foxes may be taken with guns only during the open season on other game animals.

The 1941-42 Federal Migratory Wildfowl Regulations for North Carolina have been released, James said. Open season on the following game will be: Dove, September 16-October 27; duck, Nov. 2-Dec. 31; geese, November 2-Dec. 31; Sora, marsh hen, Sept. 1-Nov. 30; rail, Sept. 1-November 30; gallinule, Sept. 1-Nov. 30.

The daily bag limit and possession limit on doves is 12. The daily bag limit on duck is 10 with possession limit being 20, but there is no open season on redhead and bufflehead ducks not over three in aggregate. The possession limit is not over six in aggregate. Three geese may be taken in one day but possession limit is six. There is no open season on Brant, Ross' Goose, Swan and Snow White Geese. No person may take more than three geese in aggregate of all kinds during any seven consecutive days in Hyde county.

Daily bag and possession limit on Coot is 25. The daily bag and possession limits on Sora, Marsh Hen, Rail and Gal-
