The Irving Cherrys and sons of Stokes were up for Thanksgiving Day with Mrs. Cherry's parents, the John Broughtons. Mrs. Lester Green accompanied her sister back to Stokes for a few days' visit.

Mrs. D. W. Stallings is spending most of her time in Raleigh at the bedside of her father, J. G. Pearce, who is critically ill in Rex Hospital.

Ruric Gill was in Rex Hospital for a few days last week, but is at present much improved.

Mrs. Lucy Holton and Lucius Holton of near New Bern were in Zebulon and Wakefield a short while Sunday morning. They were en route to Rocky Mount where Robert Holton was in a hospital, but able to be taken home that day. The Holtons, formerly lived in Zebulon and Mrs. Holton retains her interest in friends here. Ryan Holton and Rachel, the only daughter, are both married and live in New York. Robert works with the Coast Line R. R. Charles, who is married, lives at New Bern.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Pearce are moving into the lower floor apartment of the C. A. Flowers place, until recently occupied by the C. F. Allen family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dawson, Jr., were here from Southern Pines for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Judd Robertson went last week to a Raleigh hospital for a minor operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Massey will begin housekeeping soon in the Massey house at the edge of Zebulon on the Rocky Mount highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Vester Brantley and baby son were up from Woodland for the school holiday, visiting in the L. B. Sawyer home.

Mrs. Jennie Revere of Raleigh spent Sunday here with Miss Matoka Pace and Mrs. A. N. Jones.

A letter from Lieut. Graham Chamblee to his parents says that while he was away on maneuvers all his wearing apparel was burned. He is located at Fort Jackson. About 20 other men lost their clothing in the same fire. He did not know how the fire originated. A lieutenant has to buy his own clothes and they are much more expensive than a private's, so this loss was considerable to the young man.

Douglas Chamblee and three of his friends from State College spent Thanksgiving with Douglas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Chamblee. The friends were: Paul Lowder, Aubrey Goodson and George Wilson.
