MISS MARY ELIZABETH BURKE BRIDE OF ROBERT EDD HORTON

Miss Mary Elizabeth Burke of Goldston and Raleigh and Robert Edd Horton of Zebulon were married Saturday evening, December 6, at 6 o'clock in the Goldston Memorial Chapel in Goldston with the Rev. George J. Griffin, pastor of the Zebulon Baptist Church, officiating.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. A. M. Womble of Goldston, pianist, and Mrs. E. J. Hodge of Greensboro, soloist.

Traditional wedding marches were used.

The vows were spoken before an altar banked with long leaf pine. Baskets of chrysanthemums and cathedral candles in candelabra also were used in decorating.

The bride entered with her brother, Ben F. Burke of Chapel Hill, by whom she was given in marriage. She wore a woolen costume suit of R. A. F. blue trimmed with fox fur. Her accessories were of harmonizing shade and she carried an arm bouquet of white and pink bridal roses with swansonia, centered with a corsage of bride's roses.

Mrs. Frank Womble of Yanceyville, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of wine velvet with matching accessories. Her bouquet
