Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Chamblee of Asheville spent the week end with their parents, the W. H. Chamblees.

Mr. and Mrs. Spivey of Norfolk and children, spent Saturday night with their cousins, the R. H. Bridgers family.

Miss Mary E. Hagwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hagwood of near Zebulon, has been transferred from Camp Davis and is now a member of the Army Nursing Staff at Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boswell and little son have returned to New Jersey after visiting relatives here. Before leaving, Mr. Boswell renewed his subscription to the RECORD, "for the sake of keeping in touch with the home community."

C. O. Armstrong of Wakelon's faculty has recovered from an illness that kept him in bed during most of the commencement. Sulfathiazole used for a chronic throat trouble had an adverse reaction, which added to his discomfort.

Earl Antone of the U. S. Navy was home for the week end with his parents, the A. D. Antones. Mrs. Antone came home from the hospital Saturday, but Mr. Antone stayed for further treatment. He had some ribs broken in the automobile accident in which both he and his wife were hurt ten days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Winstead of Raleigh announce the birth of a daughter, Judy Dalton, at Mary Elizabeth Hospital, on Monday, May 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Murray announce the birth of a son at their home on Tuesday morning, May 12. Mrs. Murray was formerly Miss Cleo Denton.

Pastor G. J. Griffin is preaching this week in revival services in Norlina. Mrs. Griffin is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. A. Poplin of Rockingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy of La Grange visited their son's wife, Mrs. Kenneth Kennedy of Cheraw, S. C., at the home of her parents, the J. K. Barrows, on Thursday of last week.

Two members of Zebulon's Rotary Club will hold office in the Convention of the 189th District to be held in Raleigh. R. D. Massey is to be sergeant-at-arms and R. J. Sawyer is on the credentials committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Mason and Miss Faye Privette are visiting friends and relatives in New York this week.

Mrs. Z. N. Culpepper left last Friday to visit her mother, Mrs. L. B. Kirby of Tunstall, Va.

Mrs. D. M. Dizor has returned home after visiting relatives in Raleigh and Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Underhill and baby son are moving this week to Goldsboro where for a while they will be with Mrs. Underhill's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Monk.

I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to all friends for the kindness shown me in any way during my recent illness.

MRS. W. T. WHITLEY

The R. H. Bridgers family went Sunday to their annual family reunion at Jonesboro. Miss Ruth Massey made the trip with them.

Miss Lois Eddins and Katye Joyce Eddins are spending this week in Louisburg with Mrs. Herbert Fuller.

The Hubert Eddins home at Wakefield was the gathering place last Sunday not only for the immediate family and married children, but for other relatives who came to see Mrs. Mack Eddins with Mother's Day remembrances.

Present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fuller of Louisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Strickland and son, Leslie; Mr. and Mrs. Bernice King, Mrs. Maggie King, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Wyatt, Mrs. Jessie Wyatt, all of Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eddins, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Wyatt and three children, Washington, D. C.

Mrs. J. J. Whitlock of Wendell spoke to those attending Missionary meeting at the Baptist church Sunday night. Her talk was timely and interesting. She traced the growth and development of missions and emphasized the necessity of keeping on with the worldwide program.

Charles Hinton of Baltimore spent several days here recently with his parents, the A. S. Hinton's.

Mrs. J. G. Mehegan and son, Charles Mehegan of Kinston, visited Mrs. Ferd Davis for a short while Sunday afternoon. With them was Miss Mary Harris, who remained for a visit of a few days with Mrs. Davis, who is her sister.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. William Herbert Jones of Melrose, Massachusetts, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Evelyn Jones, to Mr. Frederick Chamblee, son of Mrs. Millard B. Chamblee, and the late Mr. Chamblee, of Zebulon, N. C. Miss Jones attended the University of Vermont and the Chandler School, Boston, Massachusetts, and is a member of Kappa Delta Psi. Mr. Chamblee is a graduate of Darlington Academy, Rome, Georgia, and attended the University of North Carolina. An early wedding is planned.

Bridge Club

Mrs. John K. Barrow, Jr., was hostess recently when she entertained members of her bridge club at her home in Zebulon. The home was made more attractive with several arrangements of cut flowers. At the end of the bridge games, high and low score prizes of defense stamps, were presented to Mesdames G. S. Barbee and L. M. Massey, respectively.

A dessert course was served to Mesdames G. S. Barbee, Foster Finch, Charles E. Flowers, Irby Gill, L. M. Massey, Albert Medlin, Avon Privett and Fred Page.
