Mrs. Clarence Kemp still has lovely chysanthemums for sale at only twenty-five cents a dozen. Give her your order.

E. S. Phillips of near Zebulon brought into the Record office on Monday a cluster of strawberries, one of which was nearly ripe. They grew at his place on vines not supposed to be everbearing.

MRS. PRIVETTE HOSTESS

Mrs. Eugene Privette was a recent hostess to members of her bridge club and Mesdames Carter Studdert, Lois Wall, Irby Gill and Misses Deane Hardison, and Nan Wheless.

Upon arrival of the guests the hostess served a salad plate with coffee.

At the conclusion of the bridge games, high score prizes were presented to Miss Nan Wheless and Mrs. H. C. Wade; and low to Miss Deane Hardison. Mrs. Carter Studdert was presented a gift from the hostess.

Those playing were: Mesdames Studdert, Wall, Gill, H. C. Wade, Wallace Temple, Leon C. Thompson, Russell Brantley, L. E. Long, Wallace Chamblee, R. Vance Brown and Misses Dean Hardison and Nan Wheless.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Privette were hosts to their couples' club at their home in Zebulon recently. Colorful autumn flowers were effectively arranged and formed a background for the two tables of contract.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Barrow, Jr. were awarded the high score prizes. Each received defense stamps. Sandwiches, date pudding and coffee were served.

Those making up the tables in addition to the hosts, were Mr. and Mrs. Barrow, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Temple and Mr. and Mrs. Leon C. Thompson.

Master Sgt. Sidney F. Holmes spent a few days in Zebulon last week. He is now stationed at Camp Blanding, Fla.

Mrs. H. B. Stallings of Baltimore was here for the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Will Duke. Mrs. Stallings was enroute from Miami, Fla., where she had been to visit her husband who is in service.

Miss Emma Jean Pace was home from Duke University for the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Pace. With her was a friend, Miss Lucy Whitney, of West Hartford, Conn., also a student at Duke.

Warren, Pace of the U. S. Air Corps has been transferred from Camp Croft, S. C., to St. Petersburg, Fla. He finds the change most agreeable at this season and likes his work.

C. B. Hodge of Zebulon, R-3, has two sons in the Army. They are Earnest Hodge, in training at Fort Knox, Ky., and Harold Hodge, who is with the artillery at Camp Robinson, Ark.

MRS. ALFORD HOSTESS

Mrs. Raleigh Alford was hostess to the Friendly Nine bridge club at her home in Zebulon. Several arrangements of fall flowers enhanced the beauty of the living room where two tables of contract were in play. Tallies were in the patriotic motif.

After the usual number of progressions, Miss Ruby Dawson was awarded high score prize and Mrs. Ferd Davis received low.

Late in the evening the hostess served a dessert course to Mesdames Wallace Chamblee, Russell Temple, Norman Screws, Ferd Davis, Carter Studdert, Wallace Temple, H. C. Wade and Miss Ruby Dawson.

BRIDGE CLUBS MEET IN ZEBULON

Mrs. G. S. Barbee delightfully entertained members of her bridge club and had as special guests, Mesdames Kenneth D. Kennedy and Ted Davis. Attractive arrangements of fall flowers were used for decorating the living rooms where three tables of contract were in play.

Following several progressions, Mrs. W. C. Campen was awarded high score prize for club members; low to Mrs. Avon Privett and guest high to Mrs. Ted Davis.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames John K. Barrow, Sr., John K. Barrow, Jr., W. C. Campen, Wallace Chamblee, Foster Finch, Irby Gill, L. M. Massey, Fred Page, Avon Privett, Kenneth Kennedy and Ted Davis.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Guy Tyson Sr. of Wendell announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Marian Grey, to Mr. James Marshall Alford, son of Mrs. J. W. Alford and the late Mr. Alford of Zebulon. The wedding is tentatively set for Friday, Nov. 20, in the Wendell Christian Church. Mr. Alford is a member of the Air Forces Enlisted Reserve. No invitations are being sent, but friends are invited.

MRS. BARBEE HONORED

Mrs. B. F. Boone delightfully entertained the W. S. C. S. honoring Mrs. G. S. Barbee, past president at a Halloween party. Guests were greeted by Mrs. J. F. Coltrane who asked which they wanted to join—the Who-does or Voodooos. Each group selected one to tell a haunted story with the lights nearly out. Mrs. Fred Page spun a bottle in the middle of the floor asking questions which the bottle answered. Mrs. Barbee was showered handkerchiefs from a pumpkin, after which all were invited into the dining room where a beautiful appointed table covered with a lace cloth, tall lighted yellow candles in silver holders, center piece of Marigolds. Other places in the dining room were similarly decorated. Mrs. Vernon Powers of Nashville poured tea assisted by Mrs. Fred Page. Mrs. A. R. House served boogie-faced cakes from the table. Mrs. W. C. Campen and Mrs. J. F. Coltrane served nuts, candies and cookies. Mrs. Barbee played "When you grow too old to learn, I'll have these to remember."

MISS HOUSE SPEAKER

Mrs. Vernon Powers, President of Book Club of Nashville, Mrs. W. C. Campen, mother of Mrs. Powers, and Miss Jocelyn House were guests at the home of Judge Vaughn of Nashville last Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Thomas Davis, daughter of Mrs. Vaughn, was hostess to her Book Club. Mrs. Powers had as her speaker and pianist Miss House, who spoke on the life, compositions, and operas of Richard Wagner. She had a most appreciative audience and delighted them with several selections by Wagner and other musicians.

Miss House surprised her hearers by playing each number from memory.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Massey of Whitakers, formerly of Zebulon, announce the birth of a son, Robert Daniel, Jr., on November 6th, at Rex Hospital in Raleigh. Mrs. Massey is the former Miss Frances Barrett of Kinston.

WADE-WALL

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Erdene Wall of Raleigh and Zebulon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wall of Zebulon, to Herbert R. Wade, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Wade of Wendell. The ceremony was performed on October 7th.

Returns To Hospital

Mrs. J. V. Privette was on Wednesday taken back to Rex Hospital in Raleigh for a second operation. She recently returned home from the hospital and her condition did not improve satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Williams of Rockingham were in Zebulon for a while on Sunday, coming in from the country where they were visiting relatives. The Williamses are gladly welcomed whenever they return.

B. C. Bunn, who was taken to Rex Hospital for treatment some time ago has been brought home. His condition is practically the same.

B. B. Ferrell of the Wakefield community was taken to Mary Elizabeth Hospital for treatment last week. It is expected that the treatment he is being given will take two weeks or more.

Mrs. Edwin Richardson was brought home from Rex Hospital on Friday of last week. She is improving, but is still confined wholly to bed.

Miss Rebecca Horton was home for the week-end from ECTC, Greenville.

Needham Earl Horton of the U. S. armed forces came home last week on a short furlough.

A SOLDIER'S DREAM

(The verses below were written by Pvt. Henderson Uriah Whitley of Bailey, now stationed at Fort Knox, Ky.)

A soldier's life is but a dream;
To do it is impossible sometimes it seems;
But we'll see it through,
Fighting for victory and the red, white and blue.

Although we are happy and gay
Our thoughts sometimes go astray;
We think of those we have left behind—
Of sweethearts, friends and mother kind.

We dream of the days that have passed;
How you looked when we saw you last.
With a tear in your eye and a smile on your face
We will always remember love and embrace.

When it's over and we've seen it through
For old Glory and the red, white and blue,
We pray that God will keep you the same
Until we boys came home again.

DON'T BE AFRAID OF WORK.

The following paragraph was written as advice from a father to his son, but it is a good condensed sermon for anyone:

"My son, remember you have to work. Whether you handle pick or wheelbarrow or a set of books, digging ditches or editing a newspaper, ringing an auction bell or writing funny things, you must work. Don't be afraid of killing yourself by overworking on the sunny side of thirty. Men die some times, but it is because they quit at 9 p. m. and don't go home until 2 a. m. It's the intervals that kill, my son. The work gives you appetite for your meals; it lends solidity to our slumber; it gives you a perfect appreciation of a holiday. There are young men who do not work, but the country is not proud of them. It does not even know their names; it only speaks of them as So-and-So's boys. Nobody likes them; the great busy world doesn't know they are here. So find out what you want to be and do. Take off your coat and make dust in the world. The busier you are, the less harm you are apt to get into; the sweeter will be your sleep, the brighter your holidays, and the better satisfied the whole world will be with you."
