JUST OR NOT?

We have heard some criticism of our Recorder's Court in dealing with a sailor found guilty of violating the law against speeding. It seems others involved missed trial. This man not only paid the costs but was fined. This seems to us to be somewhat unusual in dealing with local folks for their first violation of the law. If the law is always impartially administered, then there was no reason for making this case an exception favorable even to a young man in military service. However, our sympathies are with a boy who has been on the firing line facing death for months and is given a short respite to visit back home.

"GOD BLESS THE WOMEN"

A number of mothers have spoken to us of an editorial we published a short time ago about certain law violations in town. They asked us to keep up the good work, or we might say "words". This paper stands ready to back any effort to remove everything in our midst that reflects on our good name, or that we would be unwilling to publish to the world. We have talked with the town authorities and also the pastors of the local churches about certain conditions. All agreed that something ought to be done about it. The mayor indicated that something would be done about it. If the good women of Zebulon, along with those citizens who really care, and the pastors of the churches—if they will start a movement to rid our town of questionable things conducted on Sundays and week-days, we are ready to join efforts and work till this becomes a community of law-abiding christian people. Most of us are members of a church. So far as we know most of those engaged in illegal and questionable things are members of the church.

More than once in our life have we tried a one-man campaign for righteousness and the good people of the community failed to rally to our support. Had we not been sure of the righteousness of our cause, we would have gone down in shameful defeat. While our sons are fighting for the rights of all mankind, it is well that we do some fighting of our own, so they may come home to a town in which we take a righteous pride.
