

PERSONALS

Mrs. Billy Horton of Wendell is critically ill in Rex Hospital. Because of the scarcity of nurses Mrs. Horton's sisters are taking turns in looking after her during the day, a special night nurse having been secured. Mrs. Ruric Gill was the nurse on Tuesday.

Mrs. Irvin Pearce has gone to Florida to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. Morehead and family.

Mrs. Harold Casey, the former Miss Imogene Pearce, has gone to be with her husband, who recently came home from service overseas, having been wounded. They were married at Boonville in February. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ivon Pearce and has been employed in Raleigh.

Doc White is improving after an attack of illness that threatened pneumonia. He is at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ollie Pearce.

Mrs. Z. N. Culpepper left last week to visit relatives in Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bush of Chapel Hill attended Homecoming at Wakefield Sunday, also visiting in the home of their sister, Mrs. C. S. Chamblee.

Jean Bunn, daughter of the Ralph Bunn, is sick this week with chicken-pox.

Mrs. G. B. Doyle, Jr., and baby aer here from Baltimore visiting the Grady Doyles and other relatives.

The B. H. Johnsons met their daughter, Miss Louise, junior at WCUNC, Greensboro, for the weekend at the home of Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pittman Stell. Other weekend visitors were Mrs. M. E. Shamburger and son, Van, of Richmond, and Miss Betsy Shamburger, senior at Mary Washington College. Mrs. Steve Anderson of Wilson, sister of M. E. Shamburger, came from Sunday afternoon to visit in the Stell home.

Union Hope

Pvt. Vaiden P. Strickland was home last weekend for a short visit. He is now stationed at Fort Meade, Maryland. He is wearing two medals won for being sharp shooter and expert gunner while taking his training in Camp Blanding, Florida.

Pvt. J. T. Massey is home on a furlough. He has just finished his basic training at Camp Wheeler, Ga. and has to report to Fort Feade, Md., for further training. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Massey gave a barbecue and brunswick stew dinner last Saturday on honor of Pvt. Massey. All of his relatives and lots of friends were invited.

Clayton Whitley is home on a thirty day leave. He has been on another voyage overseas and has visited different places in the war area. He reports having been to North Africa, France and Italy.

Parents of Pvt. Hubert Whitley have received word of his return
