$1.50 Per Year, In Advance

Over $60,000 Worth of Bonds Sold by Auction

This, That & The Other

By Mrs. Theo. B. Davis

Last week I said that with the paper I would not be associate editor any more. And on the same page in another column a son said I would be. They may be right; it remains to be seen.

If for some reason the meal you are preparing is late, go ahead and set the table anyway. Make it look nicer than usual, if you can. Then, when the menfolk come in, tired and hungry, they'll see the table and think dinner or supper is ready. They'll sit down calmly to talk or read and the chances are you'll have to call them twice to come and eat.

If you fail to set the table, it looks as if you forgot all about the cooking and eating. The family will feel half-way injured or neglected and will watch your every movement, getting hungrier all the time.

Nobody told me this. I learned it since I have been working away from the home and pass it on free, for nothing, as a grandson says.

The family joins me in thanking Mr. Bennett Pearce for a sweet potato big enough to make all the pudding we could eat—or could spare sugar for. And no winter dessert ever made beats one of grated sweet potatoes, all gooey and sticky, maybe with raisins in; and, in the dear dead days beyond recall we could also put in some fresh cocoonut. But cocoonuts these days are many times as high as the trees they grew on; and most of them are little and discouraged looking.

Monday afternoon Staley Denton came to me with a sheet of copy he was setting. The line that puzzled him said "An idle brain is the devil's worship."

Wake Grads Meet In Baptist Church

A meeting of Wake Forest College graduates and supporters was held at the Baptist Church Monday night at 7:30 with Pastor G. J. Griffin in charge.

Guest speakers were Chairman Jackson of the Wake Forest Enlargement Campaign and Coach Jim Weaver, who has just received his discharge from the Navy.

Chairman Jackson told the group what is planned in the Enlargement Program. New buildings will include dormitories for both girls and boys, an adequate hospital, and eventually a new auditorium-gymnasium.

Wake Forest's president, Dr. Thurman Kitchin, will speak in the Baptist Church here sometime in January.

Present were Rev. R. H. Herring, T. B. Davis, Sr., Dr. L. M. Massey, C. V. Whitley, Major Ferd L. Davis, and Mrs. Ferd L. Davis, who was the first coed ever to matriculate at Wake Forest College.

OVER THE TOP IN ZEBULON

Zebulon's last bond auction went over even better than the promoters expected last Saturday, when over $60,000 worth of bonds were sold. Pictured is the main street while the sale was in progress.

Boy Scouts Meet On Monday Night

The Zebulon Boy Scouts met Monday night at their cabin with junior assistant Scout Master James Debnam in charge.

Plans for a hike were made, but no definite date was set because too many scouts were absent. No other business came before the meeting.

After the opening ceremony and business was finished, games were played, including let-'er buck, tractor, skunk tag, and others.

Scouts present were: Flying Eagle Patrol members Bob Vance Brown, K. D. Lloyd, and Robert Kitchens; Pine Tree Patrol members Billy Brantley, Leonard Sewell, and Jack Terry.

Rotarian Barrie Davis was a visitor.

Wakelon Begins Basketball Work

Wakelon's basketball team has begun practice for their season's schedule this week. Coach Lowry has them hard at work preparing for their first game to be played about December 18 with Franklin-ton.

Wakelon is a member of the Wake County Conference. Other members are Wendell, Knightdale, Rolesville, Milbrook and Wake Forest.

Last year was the first season for several years for the Bulldogs, and they suffered from lack of experience. However, they man-

The next Zebulon town hall meeting will be held at 7:30 on Friday night, November 30, in the Carolina Power and Light Company office. At the meeting aerial motion pictures of Zebulon will be shown.

This meeting originally was scheduled for November 23, but, because this is the day after Thanksgiving, it was decided to postpone the affair one week.

Vance Brown, chairman of the town committee on real estate investigation, will make his report on availability of lots for home builders in Zebulon, and Oliver Glover will report on the amount of building supplies he has located for prospective builders.

It is believed that Mr. Glover's committee has accomplished something in the way of locating lumber, as there has been a slight increase in Zebulon construction during the past week.

Following the reports of the various committees there will be another open forum type discussion, with the tentative subject being paving of local streets and roads, including arterial routes to Zebulon from nearby farm communities.

At the conclusion of the program Rev. George Griffin will show motion pictures of Zebulon made from an airplane flown by Barrie Davis, with Ted Davis as cameraman. There will be approximately 100 feet of this film shown.

Every member of the community is invited and urged to attend.

The deadline for copy (news or ads) for the Zebulon Record is Tuesday Noon. Please have it in on time.

George J. Griffin Has Club Program

President George Griffin had the Rotary program at their meeting at Tipplon last Friday night, and brought recorded messages from Rotary International President Bob Warren of England, and Secretary Phil Lovejoy. Another recorded talk by the founder of Rotary, Paul Harris, was also heard.

This program served as the induction ceremony for Barrie Davis, who joined the club several weeks ago.

Charlie Vale was the only member absent. It is hoped that he has made up his attendance by now.

Cage Players Are Needed for Team

Anyone interested in playing a bit of basketball just for the fun of playing is, urged to contact Ferd or Barrie Davis at the Record office.

Several years ago Zebulon had an All-Star aggregation under Worth Hinton's leadership which ended the season with a very good record.

Coach Lowry is eager for the Wakelon Bulldogs to play a warm-up game, and says he will be willing to play a Zebulon team as soon as it is formed.

Anyone with or without experience from Zebulon, Middlesex, Wakefield, Corinth-Holder, and Rosenberg are asked to play.
