

Pictured on the stage above are the 112 children who appeared in the operetta, "Prince of Spring," which was presented in the Wakelton School auditorium Friday night, May 2. Produced under the direction of Mrs. Grace Coltrane Kilkelly, the operetta played before a capacity audience. Among the featured attractions of the play were the many dances, all of which were under the direction of Mrs. H. C. Wade. Dr. Kilkelly and Mrs. Wallace Chamblee coached those who had dramatic parts. King Winter, pictured in the center of the stage with the other main characters, was portrayed by Glenn Perry. Others featured were Steve Johnson as North Wind, Billy Greene as Jack Frost, Jean Robertson as Mother Nature, Dottie Privette as Cupid, and Hazel Ihrle as Love.

THE ZEBULON RECORD

Volume XXIV, Number 15

Zebulon, N. C., Friday, May 23, 1947

Theo. Davis Sons, Telephone 2561

TIPPETT RECEIVES AWARD

Rex Tippett, Wakelton High School junior, was yesterday presented the W. H. Chamblee Award for Exemplary Achievement in Agriculture by Ferd Davis for the Zebulon Record.

The award, which is given in honor of the late W. H. "Billy" Chamblee of Zebulon, was made at final chapel exercises at the school Thursday morning. It consists of a plaque and a ten dollar cash award.

Tippett has made an outstanding scholastic record in vocational agriculture at the local school, and in addition has participated in 4-H Club work and has grown his own crops and stock.

Mr. Chamblee was the first farm agent Wake County had. He became agent under a program developed by the Rockefeller Foundation. For a number of years he was a county commissioner.

Tippett was selected by Ed Ellington, vocational agriculture teacher, R. F. Lowry, school principal, and representatives of The Zebulon Record.

Legion Votes to Get Single Unit Charter

Cedric Harris Post No. 148, operating for the past several years under a temporary charter issued to the Wendell organization, unanimously voted Monday night to apply for a permanent charter as a Zebulon-Wendell organization.

Following statements favoring the extension of the post to

WPTF Commentator Speaks to Woman's Club Here Tuesday

Mrs. Harriett Pressley of Raleigh, radio commentator over WPTF in "We, the Women," was guest speaker at the Zebulon Woman's Club meeting Tuesday afternoon. With Citizenship as her subject, she stressed the importance of understanding and consideration in everyday life in one's community as a basis for world peace; the doing of what is at hand as a foundation for larger things.

Introduced by Mrs. Z. N. Culpepper, program chairman, Mrs. Pressley was heard with pleasure and profit.

Jocelyn House, always a welcome visitor, gave a piano solo.

Mrs. R. H. Herring, retiring president, conducted a business session and presented incoming officers: Mrs. Fred Page, president; Mrs. Charles Flowers, vice-include both towns by Philip Whitley, Willard White, and K. P. Leonard, Dr. Charles E. Flowers, one of the founders of the post, spoke at length on the need of both towns to work together, especially in promoting veterans' organizations.

(Continued on Page 2)

On motion by Philip Massey, seconded by Jake May and Curtis Land, the members voted to apply for a permanent charter under the name of "Cedric Harris Post No. 148 of Zebulon and Wendell."

Some agitation for a separate post has been noted of late in both towns, but members favoring the division failed to appear at the meeting Monday night.

T. Y. Baker of Zebulon, a member of the State Legion organization, spoke, before the discussion and vote, on the charter requirements of the N. C. Department of the American Legion and the national headquarters. The July meeting of the local post is tentatively scheduled as Charter Night.

Ferd Davis, who has been serving as commander of the post since the resignation of J. O. Ren-

(Continued on Page 8)

C. V. Whitley Presents Awards In Closing Exercises at Wakelton

C. V. Whitley, member of the Wake County Board of Education, brought Wakelton School's commencement exercises to a close yesterday morning when he presented seventeen achievement medals to members of the student body. Other special awards were made by members of the faculty and members of local civic organizations.

J. Melville Broughton, former governor of North Carolina, made the commencement ad-

Masonic Rites Held At Zebulon Monday For C. T. Williams

The community was saddened early Saturday morning when news of the death of C. T. Williams reached Zebulon. Mr. Williams, better known as "Tommy", died at Mary Elizabeth Hospital in Raleigh after a short illness.

He was carried to Mary Elizabeth Hospital last Wednesday.

Mr. Williams was active in community life, being a long-time member of the Junior Order and the Masonic Lodge. The Masons were in charge of the funeral rites, which were held Monday at 2 p.m. from the Zebulon Baptist Church. Burial was in the Zebulon cemetery.

Ministers taking part were Rev. John McCrimmon, pastor of the Wakefield Baptist Church, and Theo. B. Davis and R. H. Herring, former pastors of the deceased. The eighth grade of Wakelton School assisted with the flowers.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Iva Griffin Williams; seven daughters, Mrs. Lucielle Richardson of Wendell, Mrs. Mildred Blocher and Mrs. Bobbie Hawkins of Washington, D. C., Mrs. Edison Wood, Jo Anne, Phoebe, and Betty Sue Williams, all of the home; three sons, C. T. Williams, Jr., Bobby and Keston Williams, all of the home; one sister, Mrs. J. B. Alford; three brothers, Eddie, Wiley and Charlie Williams of Zebulon; and five grandchildren.

Tractor Injuries Fatal To Middlesex Farmer

William Vick, 45-year-old farmer of Middlesex, Route 2, was instantly killed last Saturday when his tractor overturned while he was plowing, pinning him beneath. Funeral services were held for Vick Sunday afternoon at 4:30 from the Church of God at Samaria. He is survived by his wife, one son, and four daughters.

dress on Wednesday night, delivering one of the finest speeches ever heard here.

He was introduced by Randolph Bepton, county school head. Dr. S. L. Blanton of Wake Forest, acting pastor of the Zebulon Baptist Church, pronounced the invocation.

Awards presented Thursday in addition to those given by Whitley were made by Wayne Collier, Mrs. R. H. Herring, Mrs. Wallace Chamblee, Mrs. Eugene Privette, Ed Ellington, Ferd Davis, Mrs. F. E. Bunn, Mrs. Fred Page, and Principal Roy Lowry.

Students receiving the faculty awards were Nancy Whitley and Carolyn Massey, music; Judy Robertson, journalism; Jeannette Horton and Wilbur Conn, citizenship; Barbara Bobbitt and Hilliard Greene, dramatics.

Mickey Driver, athletics; Wilber Conn, leadership; Carolyn Massey and Bobby Ferrell, activities; Judy Robertson, valedictorian's medal; Nancy Whitley, salutatorian's medal.

Bobby Ferrell, agriculture; Harold Denton, baseball; Hilliard Greene, basketball; Allen Hinton, football; Elsie Blackley, home economics.

Wilbur Conn presided at the final exercises, and Carolyn Massey led the devotional.

Class night exercises were held Monday night.

Sister of Zebulon Man Buried Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Bertha Lutoria Brewer, 38, who died at her home on Middlesex, Route 2, last Saturday morning, were held from the Church of God at Samaria at 3 p.m. Sunday by the Rev. P. A. Howard.

Mrs. Brewer is survived by her husband, Martin C. Brewer; a son, Marvin, and a daughter, Nellie Fay; her mother, Mrs. Fannie Brantley, Middlesex, Route 2; one brother, Lemon Brantley of Zebulon, Route 1; and one sister, Mrs. Archie Brantley of Middlesex, Route 2.

Dr. Clyde Erwin Is Commencement Speaker At Corinth-Holder

Graduation exercises at Corinth-Holder High School were held Monday night when Dr. Clyde Erwin, state superintendent of public instruction, delivered the commencement address. Dr. Erwin was introduced by Ronald Hocutt, Corinth-Holder farmer, who represented Johnston County as representative in the 1947 legislature.

O. C. Freeman, principal, presented diplomas to the following graduates: Edna Barham, Lois Boykin, Gene Castleberry, A. B. Congleton, Evelyn Davis, Daphne Mason, Gene Fowler, Ruby Ray Gordon, Henry Claire Greene, Janice Hocutt, Tommie Holder, Dorothy Anne Johnson, Bettie Mae Murphrey, Irene Narron, Winton Nowell, Alfred O'Neal, Polly O'Neal, Clara Lee Parrish, Julia Anne Perry, Mary Lou Pleasants, Virginia Raper, Luby Snipes, Matt Ward, Pauline Whitley and Lila Wilder.

Chamber of Commerce Plans Being Pushed

Chairman Bob Sawyer is pushing plans for a complete organization of the Zebulon Chamber of Commerce and plans to call a meeting the first of next week to submit the proposed constitution for a vote. The constitution and by-laws have been drafted, revised, and are now being readied for final approval by the Board of Directors.

Working with committee chairman Barrie Davis were Roy Lowry, Vance Brown, and Dr. Charles Flowers in drawing up the constitution last week. They combined their proposals at a meeting held Saturday night.

On Tuesday night of this week the temporary Board of Directors, consisting of Chairman Sawyer,

(Continued on Page 8)