

WAKEFIELD NEWS

By Mrs. Vera Rhodes

Well, I am glad to report all our are healed but the Devils are not all cast out yet.

I wish very much we could raise the dead this morning. I just heard of the death of Dr. Carl Townsend over my radio and it grieves me very much. He was such a good man, and preacher too. I know he will be missed greatly by all who knew him.

Mrs. L. G. Faulkner was a Raleigh visitor Saturday.

Miss Minda Green is spending the week-end with Mrs. P. P. Pace.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Friedman and daughter are spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Helen Jones.

Mrs. Lucy Bunn was with the crowd that went to the barbecue dinner given by W. J. Perry. Am sorry I left her out when I named them last week. Excuse me, Lucy, I didn't mean to.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carroll of Raleigh and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Carroll spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Vera Rhodes and the H. A. Hodges, Jr.

Mrs. Vera Rhodes and Mrs. Riley Privette went to the opening sales Monday at Wilson. Mrs. Rhodes and the Cunningham boys averaged 55 cents for tobacco.

The Baraca Class of Wakefield Baptist Church entertained the Philatheas Saturday at the Church with a pig and chicken barbecue with all the trimmings and cool drinks. We had a big crowd and a swell time. We all enjoyed it immensely.

Little Teddy Pippin has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. T. C. Pippin, this week.

There are some more new homes going up at West End Wakefield.

We are thankful the tobacco burning season is almost over for everyone is almost worked down to the last notch.

Mrs. R. F. Hendricks and Mrs. Vera Rhodes went to the Wendell Cannery again Tuesday and canned 21 quarts green peas, 16 apple sauce, 14 grape juice, 34 tomato juice. We had a wonderful time. It's a pleasure to can over there. You get good cooperation and they are such nice people to work with. Mr. Bolding asked me to say the cannery would be open for canning two afternoons a week, Tuesday and Thursday, beginning September 1. But you can get a lot done on those two days if you go and work.

Mrs. Wiley Broughton is home with her new baby.

Her parents from South Carolina are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Willis for a few days.

Mr. Willis and Uncle Bill Broughton went fishing last week and roped them. I am going soon and see if I can bridle a few.

Jack Mitchell had a birthday this Monday and went fishing with Robert Eddins. They caught a good many and had a big fry and stew and ice cream supper at Jack's with a most of his friends. They all had a swell time, too, at least, they looked like it after they finished eating.

There will be a good many of our folks going to the Beach this week-end.
