Mrs. Chris Brantley Celebrates Birthday

By Bill Ferguson

Mrs. Christopher Sherwood Brantley, affectionately known to most Zebulon residents simply as "Mrs. Chris," was honored at her home on the Bunn Road last Sunday, when twenty-eight of her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren gathered at her seventy-ninth birthday dinner.

Mrs. Brantley, who still does housework and takes care of chickens and garden, has lived in the community for years, and is related through kinship and marriage to most of the older families of the Zebulon section.

Present at the celebration were the following children: Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Brantley of Fayetteville; Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Brantley of Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. Lenwood Brantley of Zebulon; Mrs. Herman Brantley and daughter, Mary Ellen, of Spring Hope; Lector Brantley of Zebulon; and Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie W. Rogers of Charlotte.

Grandchildren present were Mr.

Chamblee Clan Holds Annual Reunion Here

By Theo. B. Davis

There are Chamblees and Chamblees within a radius of 25 miles of Zebulon, but probably the best known are those around Zebulon. Among the most well-known are the descendants of the late Sydney Chamblee. For nearly a quarter of a century, commencing during the life of Mrs. Sydney Chamblee, the family has had a reunion almost every year in August.

On last Sunday the Chamblee clan, with hardly an exception, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Chamblee near Zebulon. A sumptuous spread dinner was served under the great oak trees on the lawn. Present were Dr. Frank Chamblee of Spring Hope, Mrs. Nettie Hester, Wendell; Mrs. Mary Eddins and C. S. Chamblee of Zebulon; their husbands and wives and a large number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and other kinspeople and friends. There were 75 people present.

Following the dinner, Rev. Edward Chamblee of Wilmington called a business meeting. Reports were made, and introductions of in-laws and new members were made. Remarks were made by Revs. Theo. B. Davis, R. H. Herring, and Dr. Walter N. Johnson of Raleigh.

The following new officers were elected: Pres. Dr. Frank Chamblee; vice-pres., Mrs. Carrie Lewis; sec.-treas., Mrs. Rodney McNabb; master of ceremonies, C. S. Chamblee; chaplain, Rev. Theo. B. Davis; historian, Rev. Edward Chamblee; memorials, Mrs. Joe Barber; committee on program, Preston Smith, Mrs. Mark Robinson, and Frederick Chamblee of Spring Hope.

Following the meeting the young people engaged in pitching horse shoes and playing badminton, while the older ones talked of old friends and times.

and Mrs. G. B. Brantley, Jr., of Fayetteville; Wilbur T. Brantley and Misses Camelia and Emily Brantley, also of Fayetteville; Misses Nancy Dell and June Rogers of Charlotte; and Miss Linda Brantley of Zebulon.

Two great-grandchildren, Howard Wayne and Gregory O'Connor Brantley of Fayetteville, attended the birthday celebration.

Other relatives present were her niece, Mrs. J. P. Brown of Raleigh; a sister, Mrs. Dora Massey of Wakefield; and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Massey and daughter, Linda, of Zebulon. More friends and relatives called during the day to extend birthday greetings.

TWICE AS MANY!

Twice as many buyers . . .

Two sets of buyers on the Wendell Tobacco Market. A real need at last met. All the folks in the Zebulon and Wendell communities got together to get an additional set of government graders and buyers.

Twice as much satisfaction . . .

You know you're going to be satisfied when you sell your tobacco in Wendell. The Wendell Tobacco Market built its reputation on satisfaction, and with twice as many buyers, we will be able to give twice as much satisfaction.

Twice as much enjoyment . . .

Yes sir! Folks will get twice as much enjoyment now. We'll sell twice as much tobacco — and that means twice as many happy folks who are filled with joy over the high prices. And come in to our store and look around. You'll get anything you need for the farm and home here. You not only get quality at a low price — you get genuine satisfaction of knowing you've made a good buy.
