Miss Anne Honeycutt Entertained Saturday With Cake Cutting

Miss Anne Honeycutt, bride-elect, was entertained last Saturday night by Mrs. Thurman Murray, Mrs. Proctor Scarboro, and Lillie Ferrel at the home of Mrs. Murray. The living room was decorated with fall flowers and miniature bride dolls and burning tapers.

After the bride-elect cut the first slice, the three-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Murray. Mrs. Honeycutt, mother of the honoree, served punch from the other end of the table. Lillie Ferrel and Mrs. Scarboro assisted in serving ribbon sandwiches, bridal sandwiches, mints and nuts.

Misses Emma Jean Pace, Melrose Perry and Beatrice Strickland, brides-elect, were also remembered with gifts. Miss Honeycutt received gifts of china, crystal and silver in her chosen patterns and other useful gifts from the guests. About 35 were present.

Mrs. E. W. Hood Is Recovering from Illness

Mrs. E. W. Hood of Wakefield has improved considerably after undergoing an operation for gallstones at Rex Hospital in Raleigh last Friday, and is now able to receive visitors.

Mrs. Hood, who is 74 years old, had 64 gallstones removed during the operation. Drs. Turner and Sinclair performed the operation.

A Couple of Wishes

This week a small boy was admiring a little black and white dog, and listened as the pup's owner explained how well the dog watched over the 13-month-old baby daughter.

"Gee", said the little boy longingly, "I'd like a dog like that to look after my little sister — if I had a little sister."

Zebulon Clean-up Week To Begin September 22 Says Mayor Bridgers

Chamblee-Hasenbuhler Ceremony Performed In Alexandria, Va.

Miss Alice Marie Hasenbuhler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hasenbuhler, of Alexandria, Va., became the bride of Donald Wilson Chamblee, son of Mr. L. G. Chamblee and the late Mrs. Ethel Ann Chamblee of Zebulon on Saturday, August 16, in St. Rita's Church in Alexandria. The Reverend McGonigle officiated at the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a silver metallic dress, with gray accessories, and corsage of orchids. Mrs. Jessie Lee Jones, sister of the groom served as matron of honor. She wore a royal blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

James P. Rowan, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., served as best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony. The house and bridal table were decorated with roses and gladioli and lighted candles, and a three-tier wedding cake centered the table. Mrs. Vincent Curtis served at the punch bowl.

The bride's mother received in a gown of copper satin, with black accessories, and wore a corsage of talisman roses.

For their wedding trip to Raleigh, the bride chose a dress of ashes-of-roses, with brown and white accessories. On their return the couple will reside in Washington, D. C.

The bride received her education at St. Mary's Academy, Hagerstown, Md., St. Mary's School, Alexandria, and George Washington High School. The groom was graduated from the Wakelon High School in Zebulon. During the war the groom served for three years in the Navy Air Corps, spending eighteen months in the Pacific theater.

Out-of-town guests at the ceremony included Mrs. E. P. Miller, of Berkeley Springs, W. Va.; and Mr. and Mrs. Benny Davey, Mrs. R. A. Brantley, and the Misses Jo Ann, Myrna, and Susan Brantley, and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jones, all of Washington, D. C.

For Cleaner — Better Meal

We have installed a modern corn cleaner, one of the very few corn cleaners in Wake County. So when you call for corn meal, call for TARPLEY'S. I will be glad to show my mill customers and other interested parties just how much trash and filth this machine keeps out of the meal anytime after September 10th. Last but not least, I have installed a new Hammer Mill, with conveyor to bring feed from outside to the mill.

For the Best in Milling, Bring Your Corn to

TARPLEY'S MILL

We trade flour, laying mash, growing mash, hog feed, for corn or wheat. Also buy wheat, oats, barley. Buy Corn shelled, on the cob and in the shuck.
