

WAKEFIELD NEWS

We are glad to report Mrs. E. W. Hood is very much improved. She is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Donnie Gay, 624 East Whitaker Mill Road, Raleigh, N. C., and is able to see her friends when they call.

Several of our Wakefield and Zebulon farmers and farmerettes attended the annual barbecue dinner in Raleigh September 30, of the Farmers' Cooperative Exchange. We had a grand day and a big crowd, and a nice parade which we all enjoyed very much, and a bountiful dinner. Some of the ones from down here were: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Finch, Mrs. Coley Arnold, Mrs. Maylon Temple, Mrs. Vera Rhodes, Mrs. J. R. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Graham Finch, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Hood, and others I didn't see. The address by Hon. Kerr Scott was worth the trip. I wish all could have heard him.

Mr. Lester Adcock of Stamford, Conn., has been visiting his sister, Mrs. L. G. Faulkner, the past week. He made the trip on his car by himself, as all his children were in school at this time. He has a beautiful home and a very nice wife and three children — something to be proud of — and he is really wrapped up in them. I had the pleasure of visiting in his home on my trip north, which I enjoyed a lot. Lester is the same old boy — just a little fatter and a little balder, but just as full of life. He had quite a job trying to see all his old friends while here. He went with us to Wilson to sell tobacco on Monday. We averaged 59 cents for a lot of 842 pounds. Not bad! We went to Rocky Mount and had barbecue at Bob Melton's, and enjoyed the day. He also went to Burlington, Oxford, Raleigh, Wendell and Zebulon. We all enjoyed having him, for he is really a jolly good fellow. So come again Lester, and bring the family.

Mr. Robert Eddins has been catching up on some of his fishing — also Uncle Bill Broughton. He caught twelve last Monday afternoon, very nice ones.

Mr. and Mrs. John Broughton recently went to see Mrs. Ruffin Broughton at Wake Forest. She is much improved after an attack of pneumonia. She is with her daughter now.

Mrs. H. E. Whitaker has returned to New Jersey after a few days with her mother, Mrs. E. W. Hood.

I was very sorry to hear of Mr. T. B. Davis being hurt. I hope and trust he will soon be better.

MR. FARMER:

Feeds are high. Poultry and eggs are high. Hogs and cows are high. You can make a good profit by feeding them out and getting them on the market.

With 100 lbs. of Purina How Chow Supplement you feed 800 lbs. of your grain. With 100 lbs. of Purina Lay Chow Supplement you feed 100 lbs. of your grain. We carry the Cow Chow Supplements to feed with your grain. If you are short of grain, we also have the complete Feeds.

Clean and disinfect your laying houses with Purina Chek-R-Fect before carrying pullets to laying house, also worm them.

COME IN AND TALK OVER YOUR NEEDS.
WE ARE SURE WE CAN HELP YOU.
