

METHODIST CHURCH

The W. S. C. S. of the local Methodist Church met this week in the home of Mrs. A. R. House. Mrs. Kitchings, president, had charge of the program. She was assisted by Mrs. Waylan Finch, Mrs. Garland Richardson and Mrs. Joe Tippett. The program carried out the theme of the year, Children's Work and Mission Work in Foreign Fields.

The Special Life Group met in the Methodist Church. Mrs. Jethro Stell was in charge of the program. The meeting was fairly well attended.

BRIDGE CLUB

The Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club met last week in the home of Mrs. Frank Lombardo. After several progressions, a prize for high score was awarded Mrs. F. L. Page, low score to Mrs. L. M. Massey. A gift was presented Mrs. Jennie Piariana, house guest of Mrs. Lombardo.

Delicious refreshments consisting of chicken salad, pimiento cheese sandwiches, pickle, lemon pie and coffee, were served. Mrs. Marlin Quick and Mrs. Ed Hales were refreshment guests.

Those playing were Mesdames L. M. Massey, Avon Privett, G. S. Barbee, Charles Flowers, F. L. Page, Wallace Chamblee, Jennie Piariana, and Irby Gill.

WAKEFIELD NEWS

There seems to be quite a bit of traveling going on lately. Mrs. T. C. Pippin and Little Teddy Pippin are leaving home Wednesday for Washington, D. C., where they will spend the night. They leave, flying on a DC-6, Thursday at 2:05 p.m., and arrive in Hawaii at 9:15 Friday morning. She is planning to stay till Christmas. We all wish them good luck and a very pleasant trip.

I hear Mrs. Theo. B. Davis is also taking a trip out to see her husband, who was injured in a trip last Thursday. They had a wonderful trip with plenty of excitement.

Mrs. Vera Rhodes is having complications between a fat back meat skin, a broken tooth, a dentist, a pair of pullikins, and what have you, and is in bed at present not doing so well.

Mrs. Robert Eddins was surprised Saturday night with a chicken barbecue at the Wake Builders Supply by several of her friends, Sunday being her birthday. She got many nice presents and cards. We wish her many more happy birthdays. Her children all came down for the occasion and spent the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Faulkner, Shirley Jean and Alice Faye, spent Sunday afternoon in Walstonburg visiting Mrs. Jessie H. Smith, and also their nephew, Samuel Vernel Adcock.

Mr. Herman Brantley, Mrs. C. S. Brantley, and Lex Brantley visited in the home of Mrs. C. M. Rhodes last Sunday afternoon.

"SURE,
it's a LIGHT BILL!"

"And I don't mean electric light bill, either. I mean a light electric bill. Because lights are only a small part of it.

It's a cooking bill and a cleaning bill and a heating bill and a cooling bill and a hot-water bill,

as well. It covers food preservation and entertainment,

washing and ironing time-telling and sewing and a lot of other things besides. It's the biggest bargain in my family budget. When the cost of practically everything else has gone UP, the price of my electric service has stayed modestly LOW.

I know I'm getting three times as much electricity for my budget dollar as Mother did 20 years ago—and electricity is doing many, many more jobs than it did then.

"It's a LIGHT bill, of course!"
