

WAKEFIELD NEWS

Thanksgiving is almost here and I am so thankful for the many blessings I have received during the past year. We should all be more thankful than we are, and serve Him better day by day. For without His help we can do nothing. He is a wonderful savior to me.

We all were glad to see our old pastor last week, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Turner. They were here for three days, visiting among us. We are very glad to know they are doing well. He has a full time church at High Point. The revival is in full swing at our sister church, Union Chapel, and was continued through Saturday night. All are cordially invited to come. You will miss something worth while if you don't.

The Gospel Singers will be there at Union Chapel from one till 4 Sunday P. M. It will be worth your while to hear them. It's a fifth Sunday, you know.

Mrs. Helen Jones has been to Gastonia to see the Sidney Friedmans recently. She got back Tuesday night.

Building is still in progress. The C. T. Williams home is complete and they are moving in. We are glad to have them at Wakefield.

Mrs. C. T. Williams, Sr., is having a house built next to them.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Adcock, of Stamford, Conn., are coming to spend Thanksgiving with the L. G. Faulkners.

Mrs. E. W. Hood and Mrs. Donnie Gay are spending Thanksgiving with Mrs. T. Y. Puryear.

Hogs are in danger now, since it turned cold. I hear them squealing all about. I've still got old meat and lard. I don't have to kill yet awhile.

Mrs. Bettie Bolton was in Raleigh for the week end, visiting friends:

I wish you all a nice Thanksgiving.

If we could get our people as interested in church going as they are in football and other things of the world, perhaps the love of God would shine out in our lives as it should.

Let's love our neighbors, do good deeds, and give some flowers as we go along, and not wait till they pass away and then pile them on their graves. It's too late then. They don't know about it and they can't thank you for something they don't know about. Do good for evil. Love your enemy. Pray for those that spitefully use you. That's what the good Book says. I hope we all believe it.

PILOT NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Todd and Jan, of Raleigh, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bunn and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Upchurch on Sunday.

Mrs. James Campbell and Jimmy, of Raleigh, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Stallings over the weekend.

We are very sorry to report that Mr. Mark Ray is ill and is in Mary Elizabeth Hospital. We wish for him a speedy recovery.

Misses Lazelle Lewis, Alice Jones and Merle Brooks of Raleigh, were home for the weekend.

Mrs. Durwood Stallings is improving nicely.

Mrs. Zollie Alford and Mr. Millard Stallings are improving.

On Thursday night at our regular prayer service Mr. Bjork showed a picture on "Alcohol and Its Effects." Then he stressed to us some fine points pertaining to this. It was greatly enjoyed by all. He also took this picture to the neighboring churches.

Charles Rose was guest at Alice Denton's on Sunday.

Sherwood Beddingfield was home for the weekend.

Mr. Alton Pearce visited his mother, Mrs. Geneva Pearce, for a couple of days last week.

Regular church services will be held Sunday and the public is invited to attend its services.
