

Wakelon Class of '29 Holds First Reunion

Winstead, Durham, secretary; and James Creech, treasurer.

On Saturday night, Mr. Dawson called the roll of the original class and those present reported on their marital status, number of children, occupation and residence. Various members of the class accounted for those who were absent.

All but four of the class members have been married. They have had a total of 32 children. Two of the class members, Doris Horton and Eugene Privett, are married to each other.

The class stood for a minute of silent prayer in honor of the only member who has died, Esther Stone of Wakefield.

After the roll call, B. H. Johnson, principal of the Middlesex School, who was the principal at Wakelon in 1929, spoke briefly, expressing his pride and pleasure in the accomplishments of the "boys and girls" since their graduation. Mr. Johnson and his wife, who was also present, were made honorary members of the class.

Of the 14 class members present, seven brought their husbands or wives. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Friedman, Mr. and Mrs. James Creech, E. C. Daniel, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Narron (Dorothy Jones) of Wilmington, Robert Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Adams, (Chloie Horton) of Simms, Mrs. Douglas Cooke (Lovie Liles) of Zebulon, whose husband is in Panama, Mrs. Garland Godwin (Guarica Ferebee) of Zebulon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooper, (Ruby Temple) of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney McNabb, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene

Privett, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tracy (Christine Bunn) of Greenville and Miss Syvon Eddins of Wakefield. Mrs. Tracy was the first member of the class to be married, more than 18 years ago.

Absent members were: Talmadge Denton, Jack Winstead, Mrs. Tom Davis (Mary Elizabeth Campen) of St. Petersburg, Fla., Miss Mary Kemp Bunn, who is teaching at Jonesboro, Russell Wells, who is stationed in the Philippines with the United States Army, Mrs. W. A. Reid (Margaret Baker) of Raleigh, Miss Vessie Ferrell of Wakefield, Mrs. M. W. Hale (Retta Stallings), who is living in Lima, Peru, where her husband is on an Army assignment, Mrs. C. O. King (Edith Honeycutt) of Wilson, Mrs. Claude Dunn (Margaret Liles) of Zebulon, Mrs. Ruby Wasz (Ruby Joyner) of Raleigh and Willard Winstead of Baltimore, Md.

The class members exchanged reminiscences on Saturday night and laughed over their pictures in the Wakelon annual for 1929, the "Pine Cone." E. C. Daniel, Jr., a foreign correspondent of The New York Times, answered some questions about international politics.

• It may be a good thing, as some maintain, to stop and take stock at the end of the year, to review, to analyze, and to resolve greater accomplishments in the New Year.

• With 1948 immediately ahead of us, let us remember only the best, forget the worst, and look confidently ahead. May this year hold for you more blessings than any that has gone before.
