

PILOT NEWS

We had a lot of visitors for the Easter weekend.
 Mrs. Ora Alford of Raleigh was home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Alford of Raleigh were also home.
 Miss Lodane Medlin of Wilmington was home with her mother, Mrs. Ludie Medlin.
 Calvin Spann of Fort Bragg was home with his wife and baby.
 Miss Jackie Stallings of Richmond, Va. spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Stallings.
 Mr. and Mrs. Carl McDuffie of Raleigh were here for Easter.
 Miss Louise Pearce was also home.
 On Friday night Miss Mozelle Ray and Mrs. Dalmon Whitley gave their Sunday School Class an Easter party in Miss Ray's home. The home was beautifully decorated and was carried out in the Easter motif. Nearly all the members were present and it was enjoyed by all.
 On Wednesday night Mrs. Avon Brantley gave her B. T. U. Class a party in her home. The children all enjoyed it.
 The Beginners enjoyed an Easter Egg Hunt Sunday.

I BUY CORN SHELLED, ON THE cob or in the shuck. Also buy wheat and cotton seed meal. I can trade good flour for either. J. W. Tarpley at Tarpley's Mill.

Mrs. Lillie Stallings has returned home after staying with her daughter in Florida for a while. Nearly everybody went fishing on Easter Monday.
 We had a good attendance at church on Sunday night for the preaching service.
 On Saturday from 5 o'clock to 8 o'clock we are having an oyster and fish supper at the Pilot School. The proceeds will go to the lunch room. Let's everybody come out and enjoy this supper.
 Regular church services will be held.

 edifice being erected by Roman Catholics in Wendell, I inquired concerning the numerical strength of those people in our area.
 There are about 40 families affiliated with the congregation. Some may wonder how such a small number could erect so commodious and nice a church building. The answer is in their method, which is usually by family assessment.

Contrary to public opinion, the GI attending college or taking special courses, does not receive the entire check allotted to him. He receives only his room and board money, of which he may do as he pleases.

I think he should receive every cent, and then pay his college expenses himself. In fact, I think he could save money by doing it that way.

As it is now, he only handles the check.

There were seventeen present, including two visitors, Barbara and Rebecca Perry who gave recitations during the social hour. Following this refreshments were enjoyed by everyone.
